ROURKES PERK UP AND WIN AGAIN

Defeat Josies, Five to Two, With Otto Merz on Mound for Eight Whole Innings; Once More Today.

Three walks, three singles and a triple gave Omaha the second game of the St. Joseph series yesterday. The score at the end of the fray stood 5 to 2 in the favor of the Rourkes.

Otto Merz tossed 'em up to the plate for eight innings and then with the score two to nothing against him he was taken out to let Ben Shaw bat for him. This was just after Hugh Bradley had pitched for Burg and drawn a walk, so Ben singled just to help the cause along.

Feeling highly elated and excited over his neat little hit, Benjamin decided it was time to rest, awaking to find that Harry Williams had touched him out. Nothing daunted by this rude disturbance, Pat's defenders stepped up and before they had ceased their disastrous work, the game had been safely tucked away under Manager Marty's belt.

"No-hit" Baker, who won his name in his opening game in this league, did the pitching for the Josies. Six hits and five bases on balls was the extent of the damage done to Mr. Baker.

The Drummers scored their two in the fifth on Krug's error. Wednesday night Ben Moore's in field hit and Falk's double.

The Rourkes acquired their five runs in the fateful eighth thusly: Bradley pinching for Burg, walked to open the inning. Shaw singled but was caught dead at first. Shag Thompson walked and Conroy tripled to left. Smith walked, and Krug and Brotten singled.

William "Scrappy" Moore finished his career at Omaha Wednesday night. But Pete Moore is here to hold up the family name. Pete has just been purchased from St. Louis Brown, and is a right-handed pitcher. Here's luck to Pete; may he prove to be what we need most.

All the ladies in the burg are expected to turn out today to watch the boys from down the creek break their last in the Western. No flowers nor nuthin'—just plain and simple ceremony will accompany their departure.

Lyons Easy for Sioux and Izzies Lose Once More

Sioux City, July 12.—Snoux City found Lyons easy today and won easily over Wichita. Grover allowed but three hits for seven innings, when the visitors staged a batting rally and scored four runs.

EDWARDS BROTHERS ENTER SEMI-FINALS

Medalist Will Meet Quimet and Other to Play Anderson in Western Golf Championship Match.

Chicago, July 12.—Donald Edwards, medalist, will play Francis Quimet, former national champion, and Kenneth Edwards will play John G. Anderson of New York in the thirty-six hole semi-finals of the Western Amateur Golf championship tomorrow, as a result of today's matches at the Midwestern Country club, the home of the Edwards brothers.

Quimet today had a runaway match with Peter Barnett, a youthful Chicagoan, winning 14 up 13 to play, one of the easiest matches on record. Donald Edwards eliminated Jack May, Argentine champion, 3 and 2. Kenneth Edwards ousted Jesse Guilford, Massachusetts champion, one up after a grueling contest, in which Guilford set a course record of 71 in the forenoon and gained a lead of four holes.

Anderson coming from behind when Guilford scored 71, 79, 150, while Edwards made 75, 73, 148, two better than Donald Edwards' medal score in the qualifying rounds. Guilford did not outdrive Edwards much of the way, but his approach were of the Chick Evans type and his putts sought the hole like steel axes a magnet.
