SCHOOL CHILDREN UP IN ATTENDANCE

Omaha Far Above Average, According to School Report; Few Children Are Working.

The high tide of Omaha prosperity is evidenced by the annual report of J. P. Carver, public school attendance officer.

One hundred and ten pupils found illegally employed were returned to school. Two hundred and thirty-eight truants were picked up off the streets and taken to their classrooms.

Judging by the reports Omaha school children are much above the average in health, but fifteen being excused from school on physicians' certificates.

One hundred and fourteen employees were warned against hiring children under fifteen years of age, were turned over to juvenile authorities by Mr. Carver.

The sum of $62 was returned to the board of education from children who dropped or stole school property.

Mr. Carver's annual report takes in the school year from June to June.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Less Strength in Prices With Arrival of Midsummer in Markets.

New York, July 27.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

Outgoing down of business, customary with the approach of midsummer is accentuated by the uncertainties engendered by international conditions and less strength appears in prices. Reaction from the extreme levels has occurred, not only in seasonal commodities but also in other commodities in which there had seemed no end to the advance, such as iron and steel and the rest of some of the leading metals has at last been paused in spreading.

The requirements of the government are being met by the production of the war effort, and most producing interests are more concerned with the problem of maintaining outputs than with the question of securing additional contracts from regular buyers.

Weekly bank clearings $4,317,414,000.
