Officers of the First

National Are Changed

Changes were made in the official family of the First National bank following the resignation of Assistant Cashier O. T. Eastman to accept the position of manager of the Omaha branch of the Federal Reserve bank. J. H. Bexten, was auditor and becomes assistant cashier. E. L. Droste was also made assistant cashier, and T. S. Miles becomes auditor. Droste has been head paying teller for a number of years. Miles has been chief clerk.

J. H. Bexten, who has now been promoted to assistant cashier, is the oldest employe of the bank. He came to the First National as bookkeeper in 1886, thirty-one years ago. Prior to that time, since 1880, he was confidential bookkeeper for Haines Brothers Implement company. He has had charge of the credit department since 1904. Before that he was discount and collecting clerk for the bank for seventeen years.

The Bee's Free Milk and Ice Fund

"I live 160 miles away but am sending a little to help buy milk for babies in the poor families," writes Dr. D. E. Maxwell of Cedar Rapids, Neb. A considerable part of The Bee's fund for poor babies comes from outside of Omaha. These out-of-town people realize the hardships that little ones have in poor families during the hot weather.

The demands upon the fund are very great. Won't you help? Your contribution may easily be the means of saving a baby's life.

Every case is investigated carefully by visiting nurses. You may be sure that every cent you give will be used for buying pure, fresh milk for some baby that is famishing for it.

Bring or send any sum from 10 cents to $5 to The Bee office. Previously acknowledged: $193.00 Dr. Maxwell, Cedar Rapids, 2.50 Mary D. Learned, 2.00 H. R. Martin, 2.00 T. W. McIntosh, Meadow Grove, Neb., 1.00 Total $200.50

Another guardsman, William J. Gutchow, of Blair, 26 years old, and Miss Georgia Lutz of Blair, were married in the court house by Acting County Judge Sundblad.

Harold M. Poole, a private in the regular army, stationed at Fort Logan, Colo., obtained a license to wed Miss Vera V. Norris of Denison, Ia. Both young people are 21 years old.

Wonderful Quiet is Prevalent at City Hall

The aftermath of the police hearing is being felt at the city hall. Now that the probe is over commissioners and department attaches are taking things as easy as possible. Many of the officials are lining up extended vacation trips, while a few others plan to take short intermittent jaunts during the hot weather.

Executives of Commercial Club Adjourn for Summer

The executive committee of the commercial club has adjourned for the rest of the summer, subject to the call of the chair. There will doubtless be some special meetings called, however, since many important matters this year demand the attention of the committee.

Weighmaster on South Side Sends Resignation

E. H. Roberts, weighmaster at Railroad avenue and Washington street, South Side, has sent in his resignation to the city council. The weighmaster gives no reason for quitting the city work.

Dietz Memorial Will Hold Service for Soldier Boys
