British Front in France and Belgium, Aug. 13 .- Lens was the center of the main activity on the British front last night. The Germans continued to exhibit signs of apprehension in a heavy bombardment of the back approaches near Vimy and to the west and northwest of the city. The Canadian lines have been gradually tightening about this im-portant French mining center and the Canadians now hold strong positions in the western environs. This apparently has been disturbing to the Germans, who have placed a high value on the retention of Lens, because of its enviable position in the Pas De Calais coal fields.
