The body of William McAvoy of Chappel, Neb., private in Company B. Fourth Nebraska, who was drowned late Sunday night in Carter lake, was found at 5:55 o'clock Monday morning by a searching party headed by Deputy Sheriff Lindsay. McAvoy evidently gave up his fight for life within fifty feet of the East Omaha shore, for the body was recovered, tangled in weeds, in only four feet of water, County Attorney Magney, ex officio coroner, will hold an inquest. McAvoy, who was 23 years old, was drowned when a boat in which he and two companions were riding upset. Arthur O'Leary, 1122 North Twenty-sixth street, and James Stipe, 122 South Twenty-seventh street, were saved. The three men took a boat from Lakeview park for a row on Carter lake and it is said that O'Leary started to rock the boat, causing all three to fall out. McAvyy could not swim and sank immediately. O'Leary could not swim but he clung to the upturned boat, while Stipe swam ashore and brought a boat to the rescue.

The accident occurred at the extreme east end of the lake, five blocks north of the lead works and not far from Kerrigan's landing.

McAvoy was stationed with the Guardsmen east of the Union Pacific bridge on the Iowa side of the Mis-Persistent Advertising Is the Road souri and was absent on leave for a night's outing.
