ALMOST TOO MUCH TO SEE AT STATE FAIR

Visitor Has to Keep on Jump All Time to Take in Sights That Have Been Prepared for Him.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Sept. 5.—(Special)—It is just one thing after another at the Nebraska state fair. What was considered the limit yesterday has to step into the discard today and what would have passed for the best ever last night is fr-out-classed by the doings today.

The grounds were crowded yesterday, but today they were more so. The big field west of the grounds used for the boys' camp, which was half filled with automobiles yesterday, was crowded to the limit today and if automobiles are an index to the number of people there will be a good showing when the tickets are counted. Wednesday was the big day last year, the attendance being 53,572. Thursday was nearly as large, the turnstiles turning in an attendance of 50,330.

Tomorrow is Omaha day and the metropolitan city always shows up well and it is expected that tomorrow will be no exception. The fisheries exhibit, as usual, attracts all the people who can possibly crowd around the building. The big fish this year are bigger than ever and there are three or four of them. Superintendent O'Brien has fairly eclipsed all his former efforts in preparing a fine exhibit and his hunting assistants are kept busy entertaining the crowds. State Game Warden Koester has a mighty fine display of ducks, geese, brant, Chinese pheasants and other game fowl near the fisheries building and these, too, attract much attention.

Dryer in Operation. Secretary Danielson is very proud of his community dryer, which he has in full operation in the big agricultural building. Peaches, apples, corn and other cannable and dryable catables are being dried under the new plan and the place attracts a great deal of attention. It is no use to try to describe the way it is done. No visitor to the big hall should neglect his chance and miss seeing the thing work. It is simple, yet solves the drying proposition nicely.

The university building, as usual, is a busy place. There the people get a good idea of the things which are done at the university and the methods used to educate and instruct the students along lines which will count for real good.

H. C. L. on Hand. The high cost of living seems to have struck many of the eating places and meals which have formerly been brought for 35 cents now command 40 cents. However, the people have to eat and there appears to be little kick coming.

Art hall, honey hall and the other places where special exhibits are made appear to be drawing the usual crowds and the rapturous "O, Mys" from the ladies are just as much in evidence.

But the stock. It is said that if all the swine alone were put on the market that can be seen at the fair this year they would bring the round sum of nearly $150,000. Then there are the cattle, the sheep and the horses. Add the value of all of these to the list and it is probable that it would take a million dollars to buy the four-legged bunch.

Too Little Space. One drawback to the stock display and especially the swine part of it is that there is not nearly room enough to take care of the growers, and it is only a question of providing more room or cutting down the exhibits. Swine, like people, appreciate a visit to the great Nebraska exposition and they will have to be accommodated or they will stay at home.

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulified cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleans the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

Why I Came Back to Omaha. By strange coincidence the city which once smiled at my ambitions now profits by my achievements. Every day I am meeting new-old friends who remembered me in boyhood and early manhood, and I am asked concerning my long absence and recent return to the scenes of my childhood.

Old residents will recall that the name of "WITHERS" has been associated with Dentistry for over 35 years in Nebraska.

My father, the late Dr. A. T. Withers, had the friendship, regard and esteem of thousands of Omaha and Nebraska people.

In his offices I received my first lessons in Dentistry—and my first lessons in HONESTY OF INTENTION AND FEARLESSNESS OF PURPOSE.

However, with the aspirations of youth and confidence of vanity, I determined that I would study Dentistry with a view of overcoming its imperfections, limitations and ever present pain.

My theories were smiled at, and my egotism ridiculed, and I left home for Dental College a very determined, although indignant youth.

My hobbies were: Better sanitary precautions, absolute certainty of results, the elimination of unnecessary pain, and a system whereby the family of the average man could secure as high class dentistry as the family of the millionaire.

I certainly aimed high—but I always found the sun shining in the sky—the shadows upon the ground and I kept looking up—studying, experimenting and working.

I am frank to admit I have not "DISCOVERED" much that is NEW, but I have improved and perfected certain of the older methods of Dentistry, until I am able to give an ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE of satisfaction with every piece of Dental Work done in my office.

I perfected my local anesthetic, which is a scientific success. It enables me to extract teeth—or even live nerve—without pain and with perfect safety.

I opened an office in Salt Lake City, Utah, and scored an immediate success. There the name "Painless Withers" was given me by a grateful patient—AND IT STUCK.

Today I have the largest dental practice in Utah, beyond any question, and have a staff of dental specialists associated with me second to none in the west.

At the height of my success the grim reaper altered my plans. My beloved and respected father, widely and favorably known to the people of Omaha as an experienced, capable and conscientious dentist, was called by death, and at the request of my family I have taken over his practice and interjected into it my own personality.

It is my purpose to continue giving the people of Nebraska the same high class dentistry that made the name of Dr. A. T. Withers synonymous with efficiency and honesty, and, in addition, I am surrounding myself with a staff of experienced, trained dental specialists, installing a system of sterilization and using the same system of LOCAL ANESTHESIA that gave the name of "PAINLESS WITHERS" throughout the west.

I want the people of Omaha to come to me with the distinct understanding that I will give them better dentistry for less money, and with unnecessary pain ENTIRELY ELIMINATED.

I want them to KNOW that while I have Specialists at every chair, my specializing ENDS THERE. I employ no CONTRACT MAKERS who specialize in diagnosing the pocketbook with a view of charging many times what the work is worth.

My schedule of prices is fair, reasonable and unchangeable—often half or less than the same work will cost you elsewhere for high class guaranteed dentistry.
