While the receipts were fairly heavy, there was nowhere enough to millers of this territory are piling up and at the same time numerous orders are coming from those in far away states. No attempt will be made to fill orders of the outsiders until the home territory is amply supplied. On the prospect of a bumper crop over the corn belt, prices on this cereal slumped off 10 to 12 cents a bushel, though the demand was good and many sales on the Omaha Grain exchange were made at the reduction that came during the short session. Receipts were ninety-six carloads and prices ranged around $1.95@1.96 a. bushel.

Oats were 1/2 to 2 cents off, selling at 58@5814 cents a bushel. The receipts were forty-three carloads.
