

SHOCK UNITS MEET DECIDED REPULSE

Liquid Fire of Germans Proves Futile Against Vigorous Bayonet Onslaughts of French Troops.

(By Associated Press.) Grand Headquarters of the French Armies in France, Sept. 26.—Captain Roeh, the initiator of the German shock units, received rude counter shocks today, when, with a specially selected model battalion, he attempted to evict the French from positions extending from the northwest corner of the Fossez wood to the eastern fringe of Chaume wood, on the Verdun battlefield.

LIQUID FIRE APLENTY.

Sprays of liquid flame and a furious grenade attack followed a terrific German bombardment of the French lines, but the French troops undismayed by this, went out to meet their assailants and beat them back with bayonet and hand grenade until the discomfited Germans were forced to return to their own trenches.

There were many hand to hand combats between the lines, where the Germans now lie thick. Not an inch of territory was reconquered by the Germans, notwithstanding their extraordinary efforts to regain ground in the neighborhood of Hill 352, which would be of immense advantage to their observers.

PRESERVE FRENCH LINE.

Other German attacks facing Bezonvaux and to the south of Beaumont were intended to distract the attention of the French from the real German objective. Here the Germans came face to face with French colonial battalions, who hurled the enemy back, inflicting a large number of casualties and maintaining inviolate the entire French line.

Three divisions of the crown prince's army participated in the action.

American Aviator Killed.

Douglas MacMonagle of San Francisco and a member of the Lafayette escuadrilla, was killed in an aerial fight yesterday. He arrived at the front May 5 and was promoted to a sergeant August 25.

Douglas MacMonagle was a student at the University of California. He was decorated with the war cross for bravery under fire August 9. He joined the Lafayette escuadrilla last June and participated in various dangerous operations undertaken by the American aviators.

Up to September 20 thirty-seven living French aviators "aces" had destroyed 396 German airplanes in air combats. Eleven other "aces," who have been killed, accounted for ninety-one Germans. The list is headed by Captain George Guynemer (since reported dead).

An airman obtains the rank of ace when he has destroyed five enemies. The list of German aces numbered fifty-seven, of whom twenty-nine have been killed in the course of flights on the Franco-British front.

Colored Men May Now Enlist in Regular Army

The United States army has now opened its doors again, for a short time, to colored men. These may enlist at the recruiting stations, that in Omaha being in the Army building, Fifteenth and Dodge streets. They may enter as privates in the quartermaster's corps and will do the work of stevedores, helping with the hauling and loading of supplies, etc. They will be assigned to colored regiments and there is good opportunity for them to rise and become noncommissioned officers in their companies.

Heretofore colored men could enter in but two ways, first by taking training and passing examinations for colored officers at Des Moines. Secondly they entered by the draft. But for the colored man without education sufficient to take him into the officers' training camp there was not the opportunity to enlist as is for the white man.

"There has been a great demand on the part of the colored men of the Omaha district to enlist," said Major Frith, army recruiting officer. "I am glad this opportunity has come to them. I would advise every one who wants to volunteer to lose no time doing so as only a limited number are needed in the quartermaster's corps and the ranks may be filled soon. Any army recruiting office may take in colored men for the present. Colored men entering thus will get expenses and $30 a month, to start with, and have a chance of promotion."

Nationals Expect Peaceful Settlement With Ulstermen

Cork, Ireland, Sept. 26.—The Irish convention reassembled here today. Though no definite arrangement yet has been reached with the Ulstermen, it is said that the speeches of some of the leaders, couched in very eloquent and friendly language, have given good grounds for hope of a peaceful settlement. There was some apprehension of opposition to the convention on the part of Sinn Feiners in Cork, but John Macneil and Arthur Griffiths, the Sinn Fein leaders, urged their followers in this city to follow the example of their Dublin compatriots and let the convention alone.

About ninety delegates attended the first sitting here, with Sir Horace Plunkett in the chair. At the luncheon given by the Harbor board, Chairman Plunkett and other delegates spoke guardedly, but hopefully of the convention's prospects.

High Water at Beaver City Floods Fair Grounds

Beaver City, Neb., Sept. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Today was the opening day of the Fumas county fair, but the grounds were under two feet of water, the result of a downpour in the Beaver Valley last night. From two to four inches of rain fell. The management has announced that the fair will open Thursday and continue until Saturday. Persons who had camped on the fair grounds were compelled to seek higher ground at an early hour this morning when the water came out of the banks and spread over the lowlands.

Former Russ Minister of Interior Cries From Fortress Prison Cell He's Guilty Of Misunderstanding Spirit of His Age

Greatly Hated Protopopoff, Interviewed in Depths of Saints Peter and Paul, Where Other Notable Culprits Are Held.

(By Associated Press.)

Petrograd, Sept. 26.—As the result of a month's negotiations after which a decision by Premier Kerensky was finally asked, The Associated Press correspondent was permitted today to inspect the notorious Troubetskoi bastion of the fortress of Saint Peter and Saint Paul, the bastille of Petrograd. Here during two centuries there have been immured high born traitors, pretenders to the throne, assassins of emperors, propagandists of nihilism and bomb throwers and here today the most hated adherents of the banished autocratic regime are awaiting the nation's verdict.

Hold Eight High Culprits.

In this bastion now are interned eight exalted culprits. They are General Rennenkampf, whose record as a military judge in 1906 during the attempted revolution constituted a "hangman's progress" to Siberia classed as equaling, if not surpassing the infamies of the notorious Jeffrey M. Bielecky, former director of police and accomplice of agents provocateurs; the reactionary former minister of the interior, M. Makaroff, who procured the election of a burglar to the duma to act as a spy; M. Sikreniiff, accused of serious offenses as chief of the army motor supply office; former minister of justice J. Chchevoglouff, whom the late Count Witte characterized as "the most clever, most corrupt man in Europe"; Prince Alexander Dolgoroukoff, the cavalry commander seized last week as a supporter of General Korniloff; General Voyekoff, the former emperor's palace commandant and finally Alexander Protopopoff, classed as a patriotic member of the duma, next an oppressive minister of the interior and last the ally and slave of the mystic monk, Rasputin.

Interview With Protopopoff.

Following a lengthy examination of the prison, and while the roll of prisoners was being looked over, the procurator announced that the examination within one of the rooms had been finished. Into the chancellery, with two soldiers behind him, walked, well dressed, but collarless, a man of middle height, slight figure, small features and a short, graying beard, with eyes unnaturally bright and almost feverish, and an expression of extraordinary refinement and dignity.

"That," said the procurator, "is M. Protopopoff."

The former minister of the interior stepped in the middle of the room.

"We can speak English," he began, at which the procurator intervened.

"Please do not," he said.

On this M. Protopopoff, with a smile apparently intended to express sarcasm, began speaking in Russian. Asked regarding his health, he answered enigmatically, "It is too good."

Guilty of Great Crime.

Convinced that he would not be allowed to touch upon politics, the Associated Press correspondent inquired regarding the treatment the former minister was receiving and as to whether he had any complaints to make.

"I have no complaints of any kind," answered M. Protopopoff, and he continued:

"Would any of you Americans complain if they knew they were desperate criminals?"

M. Protopopoff smiled, again apparently in sarcasm, and the correspondent, thinking the words intended as an oblique protest against his treatment, said:

"You mean that as irony?"

"It is not irony," answered M. Protopopoff. "I have no right to complain because I am guilty of crime."

"That," said the correspondent, "is a strange remark in the presence of the procurator, whose duty is to pile up evidence against you."

The former minister's head again was thrust quickly to one side as he said, without a smile:

"I supply the evidence myself. I am guilty of the most awful crime of not understanding the spirit of my age."

Repeating the words "spirit of my age" in Russian, Protopopoff, followed by his soldier guards, went out of the room.

Governor Kurindin declared that escape from the prison was inconceivable and that none was on record in modern times. In the library the correspondent found volumes in Russian, French, English, German, Italian, and even in Finnish, the last for the use of the Finnish patriots, who, under Premier Stolypin's oppressive "equality law," were tried and imprisoned in Russia.

U. S. HOLDS TIGHT TO GOLD AND SILVER

No Adult Can Carry More Than $200 in Silver From Country; $5,000 Limit in Notes.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Sept. 26.—Regulations governing the exportation of gold, silver and currency announced today by the Federal Reserve board indicate that the government will restrict such exports to the maximum degree where they cannot be avoided in settling trade balances.

The board announced as its general policy that it would not authorize the exportation of gold unless it could be shown that the gold was to pay for a corresponding importation of merchandise for consumption in this country.

"In any case," the announcement says, "authorization will be granted only where the exportation of gold in payment for such merchandise is found to be compatible with the public interests."

The amount of gold which persons leaving the country may take with them, was fixed at $200 for each adult.

Five thousand dollars in addition may be taken out in currency and $200 in silver or silver certificates without license.

Pass on Exports to Canada.

The board's announcement after stating the general policy, continues: "Until further notice the board will approve all applications for the exportation of Canadian silver coin and currency without limitation."

Treasury department has instructed collectors of customs to pass such shipments into Canada when approved by the federal reserve bank of the district from which shipments are made.

"Continuous permits for shipment of Canadian coin and currency without requiring an application in each case may be granted by Federal Reserve banks upon condition that each transaction will be reported to it without delay."

"Applications for the exportation of silver bullion and silver coin of foreign mintage will in general be approved by the Federal Reserve board upon recommendation of federal reserve banks at which the application is filed."

"Applications for the exportation of United States notes, national bank notes and federal reserve notes will as a rule be approved by the Federal Reserve board, but each application must come before the board for its determination before shipment is made."

"Instructions have been issued by the Treasury department to collectors of customs to permit travelers leaving the country to carry on their person or in their baggage:

"United States notes, national bank notes and federal reserve notes, not to exceed $5,000 for each adult.

"American silver dollars, subsidiary silver coins and silver certificates not to exceed $200 for each adult.

"Gold coin or gold certificates not to exceed $200 for each adult.

"Collectors of customs have been informed that in dealing with travelers these regulations without communication with the Federal Reserve board or the federal reserve bank of their district.

"Shipments of coin or currency which appear to be or are suspected of being for enemy accounts or for the benefit of the enemy will not be permitted. These regulations are issued subject to change without notice and no application granted will be regarded as constituting a precedent."

Savings Banks Will Win the War, Assert Bankers

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 26.—A nation-wide campaign of intensified thrift as a means of winning the war was suggested by speakers before the convention of the American Bankers' association here today. The nation's savings must be tripled, some of the delegates declared, if we are to be successful in our fight for democracy. "We have credit," one banker said, "but credit is perfect fiction unless you have something to back it. Increased savings is an absolute necessity to win the war."

John McHugh of New York was elected president of the clearing house section and Edward D. Huxford, Sherokee, Ia., was chosen head of the state bank section.

Kansas City Judge Gives Recipe for Tail Lights

Judge A. J. Herrod, police judge of Kansas City, paid his respects to Judge Fitzgerald in the Omaha police court. He seemed interested in the automobile cases.

"We have a recipe for those tail lights that are always going out after the owner claims he has lighted them," he said. "We charge them a dollar for the recipe and it's worth it. When a man is brought before me on that charge I fine him a dollar and give him the recipe: One teaspoonful of gasoline mixed with a lamp full of coal oil. That will do the business. Keeps the wick burning after it's lit."

The wisdom of Solomon appears now and then even in police court.

Notify All Seamen to Avoid Espionage Schemes

London, Sept. 26.—Robert H. Skinner, the American consul general, has been instructed by Secretary of State Lansing to notify all seamen on vessels bound for the United States are provided with passports or other documents showing their identity and nationality. Those who are not so provided are subject to detention when they reach the United States. The documents must bear the photographs of the holders.

This step is assumed here to be directed toward the suppression of possible espionage schemes.

CHICAGO MAYOR TO RUN FOR SENATE

Says Will Give People Chance to Vote on Vital Governmental Policies and Citizens' Rights.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Sept. 26.—Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago tonight announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for United States senator to succeed James Hamilton Lewis, democrat, at the primary election next September, basing his contest on the ground of giving the people of Illinois "an opportunity to vote on vital governmental policies, involving the most precious rights of American citizens."

The announcement says: "I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized statements." The mayor recently used Chicago newspapers for attacks on him in connection with his stand in regard to the entrance of the United States into the war and the draft law and his opposition to Governor Frank O. Lowden who ordered the suppression of a peace meeting in Chicago.

Mayor Thompson has been quoted as saying that as mayor of the "sixth largest city of the world," he yielded to none in patriotism, but that he opposed the entrance of American armies into Europe and the drafting of Americans to fight on foreign soil. His statements declared that the majority of the people was with him in his stand.

Mayor Thompson's signed announcement follows:

"To the people of Illinois: "In order that the people of this state may have an opportunity to vote on vital governmental policies involving the most precious rights of American citizens, I shall be a candidate at the primary in September, 1918, for the republican nomination for United States senator to succeed J. Hamilton Lewis."

"I stand upon my record as a public official, my public addresses and my authorized public statements."

"In order that my candidacy may not be involved in the local election of aldermen in Chicago next spring, in which I shall take no part for or against candidates for the city council, I shall withhold the announcement of my formal platform until after the next spring elections."

"William Hale Thompson."

T. Kellister, supervisor of the Black Hills National forest, late this evening.

RIOTS MARK COURSE OF 'FRISCO STRIKE

Public Utilities Committee Recommends Purchase of Street Railway by City; Further Action Thursday.

(By Associated Press.)

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 26.—Spontaneous rioting and adoption of a resolution by the public utilities committee of the board of supervisors recommending purchase by the city of San Francisco of the properties of the United Railroads marked the course today of the street car strike here of 1,700 platform men.

In one of the riots a strike sympathizer was arrested after it was alleged he had led an attack on a street car. In another outbreak of violence an 18-year-old boy was struck in the face by a stone and was taken to a hospital.

The proposed plan of the city to buy the United Railroads is an outcome of efforts to settle the strike of the men, who demand an increase in wages and recognition of the union. Mayor James Rolph jr. has called a special meeting of the board of supervisors for Thursday to take further action toward purchasing the railway line.

The United Railroads operates approximately two-thirds of the street railway lines in San Francisco. It proposed that the city buy the property on the installment plan and operate the line in connection with the Municipal railway, which has been running several years.

'We Did Not Will the War,' Says Kaiser to Veterans

Amsterdam, Sept. 26.—The German emperor, in addressing the veterans of the 1916 campaign in Roumania, on Saturday, according to a report received here from Berlin, spoke of the Hohenzollern, who had succeeded a great and noble prince, and, notwithstanding all traditions, did not know how to keep the faith. Emperor William also described King Ferdinand of Roumania (a member of the house of Hohenzollern) as the "renege," who at the time when Germany was engaged in a terrible war, joined the enemies of the empire.

The emperor spoke of the "eternal miracle of German strength, which had been brilliantly proved," adding:

"Indeed the avenging hand of the Judge above us has sealed the fate of his ruthless lesser friend. What the Lord of Hosts may still have in store, we do not know, but, come what may, we are able confidently to look the world in the face. We did not will this war, and if it be prolonged, it is not our fault."

Biggest Strike in History Of Australia Is Settled

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Just plain mulified coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Adv.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

Brush this through faded, streaked locks and they become dark, glossy, youthful.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents. Don't try gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and I have never had any more trouble, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, 244-D Massachusetts St., Boston, Mass. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Advertisement.
