112 Utah wethers125 12 50 DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Price Recovery Apparent and Gain in Working Force at Many Plants. New York, Oct. 5 .- Dun's Review tomorrow will say:
Progress toward better business was un-mistakable in some important branches which recently experienced halfing and more optimistic views of the general situation are possible. With the gain in actual trans-actions, which in some lines has been con-spicuous, there has come an increase in the working force at plants which had been running less actively, or hot at all, and fur-ther price recovery is witnessed in certain quarters where there has been rather sharp yielding.

Boston, Oct. 5.—The Commercial Builetin tomorrow will say: "The demand for wool continues steadily throughout the trade and the volume of business accomplished during the week has been as large doubtless as that in the weeks immediately preceding, while prices have kept very strong. Low scoured wools advanced about 5c a pound in the last fortnight, although greasy wools showed hardly any rise. Manufacturers are getting further orders from the government and apparently are having a fair trade in light weight goods. Some further buying is reported from the west at fully last week's prices for country bunch lots. Scoured basis: Texas, fine 12 months, $1.68

OF ATTACK IN HOME

Marcel Solomon, Employed by Mrs. James Mulqueen, Found Bound and Gagged in Base. ment of House.

Marcel Solomon, nurse maid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Mulqueen, 449 Glen avenue, is in the Edmundson hospital in a state of complete physical collapse as the result of an assault made upon her by an unidentified mar yesterday afternoon during the time she had been left alone in the house in charge of the Mulqueen babies.

Mrs. Mulqueen found her unconscious at the foot of the basement stairs slowly strangling to death from a hair ribbon that had been tied around her neck. The attack was made by the same man who broke into the house the previous evening while the Mulqueens were in Omaha witnessing the parade, and was frightened away when the nurse girl ran screaming from the house.

No Trace of Girl.

Mrs. Mulqueen left the house shortly after noon yesterday when Mr. Mulqueen drove her to the dressmakers. She left the nurse girl, who is between 15 and 16 years old, in charge of the babies. When Mrs. Mulgeen returned about 2 o'clock she found the house in great disorder and the nurse girl absent. She called. but got no response and made a hurried search of the house, and found her lying at the foot of the basement steps, unconscious, With a pair of scissors she had in her hand, Mrs. Mulqueen cut the strangling ribbon and gave the alarm. Dr. Hamilton worked for an hour partially to rescusitate the girl and then removed her to the hospital. Saw Man's Face. She recovered consciousness long enough to give an incoherent account of the attack. She said her assailant was the same man who had broken into the house on the previous evening, and whose face she saw clearly, He had entered the house again apparently only a few moments before Mulqueen's return, seized the girl, tore the ribbon from her hair, tied it tightly around her neck and brown her down the basement steps. Robbery was evidently the motive, but the return of Mrs. Mulqueen frightened the man away after he had begun his search. Nothing was taken. Mrs. Mulqueen's two infant children were sleeping in their cribs and were not disturbed. Miss Solomon is the daughter of a widow living at 719 Fifth avenue, and is staying at the Mulqueen home while attending high school. The full extent of her injuries cannot be determined until today, physicians say.
