GIANTS AND SOX HAVE TWO APEICE; KAUFF LEADS BAT MASSACRE WHILE FERD SCHUPP SHUTS OUT ALL RUNS

Full Seven-Game Drive Expected; Giants' Work Almost Unparalleled in History of World's Series.

Rube Benton yesterday, Schupp also equalled for the Giants team, as a whole, a double shutout which has been scored few times since the beginning of the present century. Past Famous Shutouts. In 1908 the Chicago Nationals, white-washed the Detroit club in two games. In 1905 the Giants of those days shutout the Philadelphia Athletics for four games out of five, while the only victory of the Mackmen was also a shutout by the Indian pitcher, "Chief" Bender. Christy Mathewson, now manager of the Cincinnati Nations, and "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity were the New York twirlers who engineered the quadruple whitewash of the Athletics.

Early Innings Wild. There was nothing to forecast the sensational developments of today's game in the early innings. For three seasons it was a pitchers' battle between Faber and Schupp with little if any advantage on either side. Kauff was the third man to face Faber in the Giants' half of the fourth, Burns and Herzog having failed to make first base. With two out and his record of not a hit in the series in thirteen times at bat, a byword among the fans, Kauff was desperate. With a ball and a strike called against him, he saw a perfect "groove" ball coming up from Faber's hand and taking a detour to hold in the batter's box he flung the full weight of his body into the swing of the bat. There was a terrific crack and the ball flew like a bullet over second base and far onward into centerfield.

Felsch Sprints for Center. Outfielder Felsch, the man who made the tremendous circuit drive off Sallee in the opening game of the series, sighted the sailing sphere and sprinted for the centerfield bleacher fence. The ball passed over his head and fell among the folds of a canvas sign, which before it was dropped at the beginning of the game, announced: "The Giants have bought their Liberty bonds, have you?" Felsch, in his eagerness to hold Kauff at third, fumbled the ball, as he tried to pick it up, and the giant runner was crossing the plate as the sphere was finally returned to the infield. Both Kauff's teammates and fans gave him an enthusiastic greeting as he sped toward the Giants' dugout.

Sox Hurler Falters. The circuit blow appeared to take something of Faber's confidence and although Zimmerman was retired on an infield out, the White Sox hurler faltered as soon as he faced the Nationals in the succeeding session. Fletcher opened with a single to center, Manager McGraw crossed the Sox by switching from his well known hit and run system to bunting. Robertson and Holke both laid down perfect bunts and by fast sprinting the bases were filled. Rariden's hopper to Faber resulted in a double play, Fletcher being forced at the plate and Schupp's single to center sent Robertson across the plate, but Holke was caught by Felsch's rapid return of the ball as he tried to slide in, a stride behind Robertson.

Lucky Seventh for Giants. In the "lucky seventh" the Giants scored again. Fletcher singled off McMullin's glove and took third when Faber's "split ball" flew wild and Schalk had to chase it to the grandstand wall. Robertson went out, Faber to Gandil and then the White Sox pitcher hit Holke, sending him off first. For the first time in the game the fans began to root steadily in an effort to rattle Faber. McGraw gave the signal for the hit and run play and as Rariden went out Collins to Gandil, Fletcher scored. With Holke on second, Schupp was retired, Weaver to first.

Danforth in Box. Faber retired at the end of the seventh inning and Danforth took up the hurling for the White Sox, when the Giants went to bat in the eighth. urns fanned, but Captain Herzog asked a single to center and for the second time in the game, Kauff found ball to his liking and sent it sailing away for another home run. This one he hooked the ball toward right field and the sphere dropped leisurely to the grandstand back of first base, hile Kauff trotted around the bases, led to duplicate Kauff's hit, but the st he could do was a triple to nter and he was caught flat footed the plate when Fletcher missed a ball on an attempted "squeeze ay."

Fans Seven Batters. During the game Schupp pitched total of 123 deliveries, of which rty-five were strikes, fifteen foul lkes and forty balls. Eight others re fouled, eighteen field outs and clean hits. He fanned seven bat-

Sugar Beet Factories Need More Men Badly

(From a Staff Correspondent.) Lincoln, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The sugar beet factories of northwestern Nebraska are suffering for want of men to manufacture sugar from the big crop of beets coming into the factories, according to F. L. Emerson of Scottsbluff, who was in conference with the state and government labor commissioners here today. Mr. Emerson says that the Scottsbluff and Gering factories are running only on two-thirds force, while the new mill at Bayard is uncompleted and men have had to be taken from the Bayard mill to assist in running the other two. The Great Western Sugar company which operates the factories is offering 27½ cents per hour for twelve hours a day and seven days a week with a bonus of 40 cents a day if a man works the entire season of something more than 100 days. Transportation is furnished.

Central High to Meet Creighton Eleven Today

The Central High school football team expects to make things lively when it meets the Creighton eleven Friday on Creighton field. Efforts are being made to strengthen Creighton's line, which at present averages about 145 pounds. Rossiter, captain; Dorsey and Coyle are the only old men that "Chuck" Morearty has to send against his former team mates. Being Creighton's first game of the season, no stars have developed. Rossiter, who has been the blue and white's sole hope, is out with an injured knee. Central's end runs and forward passes are being counted on to do the work. The team will lack Maxwell's artistic foot work, since he is laid up with injuries received in the South High game. "Turk" Logan will take his place at quarterback and Carson will play in Logan's position at left half. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

Keeps Kidneys Active With a Glass of Salts

Must Flush your Kidneys occasionally if you eat regularly. Noted authority tell what causes Backache and Bladder weakness.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.
