Rock Island Loses Fight in Lancaster District Court

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—A decision of interest to a great many people of Nebraska, especially along the line of the Rock Island railway, and, perhaps, along other lines, was given yesterday in the district court of Lancaster county, involving the perpetual rights of railroads to obtain property. Suit was brought by Mrs. Emma H. Holmes against the Rock Island to annul an option given by her when the railroad company purchased land for a right-of-way through the state. The deed recited that the company had the right to purchase additional land at any time in the future at the same price per acre.
Senator E. J. Burkett, attorney for Mrs. Holmes, held that the option included in the deed was in violation of the law of perpetuities and that the land could not be placed in perpetual situation as against trade and commerce. The court decided in favor of Mrs. Holmes.

The May Hotel company of this city yesterday held a meeting and voted to purchase $5,000 in liberty bonds. Acting upon the request of Herbert Hoover the Paddock hotel and restaurants of this city will have a beefless Tuesday and wheatless Wednesday. This plan will be effective at once.
Sheriff Acton is investigating the fire which occurred at Barneston yesterday. The fact that the Seagle & Chapin lumber and coal yards at Liberty and Barneston have been destroyed by fire within the last few days leads many to believe that the fires have been of incendiary origin.

"Show that you have bought a Liberty bond of the second issue by wearing the button—Uncle Sam's badge of loyalty," urges A. W. Gottschalk. He suggests that everyone ask his friends if they have a button, or why they have none, thus bringing the necessity of buying the bonds constantly to the attention of all.
"Bonds can be bought in such small denominations and on weekly payments," he says, "that it is almost impossible for anyone to be excused for not wearing the button."

REMOVE ONE COUNT IN CHADRON CASE

Judge Grimes Sustains One Demurrer But Overrules Others; Lawyers Charged With Having Liquor.
Alliance, Neb., Oct. 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Demurrer on one count of the indictment of the six Omaha men on trial in the Chadron conspiracy case was sustained by Judge Grimes at the opening of court here today. Demurrer on the other counts were overruled and the case will go to trial this afternoon.

Matter Eliminated.

The count eliminated by Judge Grimes' ruling charged Steve Maloney former chief of detectives of Omaha; Harvey Wolfe, William S. Dolan, Charles W. Pipkin, Gust A. Tylee and Philip Winkler, members of the Omaha Detective association, with conspiracy to prevent C. D. Crites, county attorney at Chadron, from running for public office and from prosecuting certain cases in court, and with an attempt to influence Mrs. Robert Hood in a suit for divorce.
The count upon which the Omaha men must stand trial charges them with conspiracy to obtain money under false pretense by bringing about a meeting between Mrs. Hood and Edwin D. Crites in the latter's office.
A sensation was sprung this morning when it was learned warrants for the arrest of Allen G. Fisher, William P. Rooney and Mike Harrington, prominent figures in the Chadron case, on a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor was issued. An Alliance attorney found in an intoxicated condition led officers to raid the hotel at which the three accused men are stopping. Fisher is one of the defendants in the Chadron case.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
Lincoln, Oct. 16.—(Special.)—People of Nebraska will be interested in the news that Colonel Frank P. Corrick, state chairman of the progressive party, probably has struck it rich in oil in Oklahoma. He went to Oklahoma, organized the Blue Bell Oil and Gas company and now owns leases on more than 10,000 acres of oil lands. Things didn't pan out very well at first, but recent developments indicate that Corrick and his associates have fine prospects; if the Durant Daily Advertiser has the right dope as shown by a copy which reached Lincoln this week.
Colonel Corrick reached Lincoln yesterday to visit his family. He is still strong for Roosevelt for president and says that there are plenty of others who feel the same way and didn't feel that way in 1912 and 1916.
