BOYS IN FRANCE LOOK TOWARD XMAS

Send Anything, Send Everything, Says Robert Kutak, Omaha Boy, in Letter to His Parents.

Frank J. Kutak, 1721 South Twelfth street, has just received two interesting letters from his son, Robert, who is serving with the American expeditionary forces in France.

Robert finds some difficulty in disclosing his whereabouts, due to the careful eye of the censor, but his letters give some idea of how he and the other boys are getting along.

Under date of September 16 he writes: "I have not written for a long time and am very sorry. I am now back at the training station with the company. We left the beautiful little city on the big hill yesterday morning by train. It took us all day to make the short distance here. We passed through a village on the way which years ago was known to all the world of that time. I can't tell the name, because it plays away our location. I also saw my first castle. It was up on a hill with spires and battlements piercing the air and overlooked the beautiful valley of a battle-famous river.

Medieval Town. "As for the town we have left behind us, I will say it was some place, a regular medieval town. The entire town is on a great hill. Our camp was on top of the hill in the town. In the morning the forest-covered hills, with the foggy valley which surrounds the town, would make a pretty picture. Prices were fairly low in this town and I spent all my money. Just the same I needed a few things I could have gone without had I been back with the company.

"Well, I am back now, and I found everything changed. It was a change for the better with me, however. I sleep in a better place now. In some ways, which I can not tell you, it was a change for the worse. I'll get along somehow. I felt pretty blue on leaving, but I've cheered up considerably since I came here and saw Joe, Hill and Otto. I received pa's letter dated August 14, while away. In it you seem to hope for peace next summer. Such is not the expectation of the French, however. The optimistic Frenchmen think two years, the pessimistic think three or four years more, and no wonder they think so."

Look Ahead to Christmas. Under date of September 20 Robert writes again: "I wrote last Sunday, and the letter got by the censor, but with difficulty. I tried to send a photograph, but it was censored out of the letter. The papers are talking of peace again. The Germans will make big concessions to get peace by winter, they say. They would have to make pretty big concessions to meet the allies' terms. I'm afraid. Here's hoping they do. We are getting very good food, and I have a fairly good place in which to sleep, so I don't care how long we stay here. I don't know what we would like for Christmas—tobacco undoubtedly would be welcomed. Such food as would keep would be good. Some good flashlights and other such things would help in and out of the trenches. Razors, (safety),

Typewriting is Favorite Of Night School Students

Three hundred and fifty men and women are seeking instruction in typewriting at the public night schools which were opened Monday.

This exceeds all expectations and necessitates the school authorities renting a number of typewriters. At Central High and High School of Commerce night schools 225 wish to become typists, while 125 have been enrolled at South High night school.

A class of fifty in telegraphy has been started at High School of Commerce.

"There is a great demand for typists and stenographers at this time on account of war conditions," stated Superintendent Beveridge. "I understand that the population of Washington, D. C., has increased 60,000 since the war started. The government is using many clerical employees and industries which have lost employees through the draft are seeking successors."

Benson Honors Its Soldier Boys at Front

The boys who have gone to the front from the Methodist church will not soon be forgotten by the members, who last Sunday raised a large silk flag on a tall pole, and on this pole is a smaller flag for each of the young men. The names, seventeen in all, are on each flag in memory of the following, some of whom have already gone across the waters: Louis Campbell, Harry and Ray Chappell, Roy and Harold Ebner, Roy Raymond and Virgil Young, Will Chantry, Howard Furbush, George Hurwood, Charles Piant, Clayton Satchum, Owen Swopes, Charles Mitchell, George Titzel, and Clarence Lord.

POSLAM EXCELS IN INTENSITY OF HEALING POWER

Poslam possesses healing energy so highly concentrated that one ounce of Poslam is worth a pound of ordinary ointments less efficient in the treatment of Eczema or any eruption of the skin.

Talk with those who have been healed of aggravated skin troubles, who have used all kinds of remedies AND THEN USED POSLAM, and they will say this even more emphatically.

Results come quickly. Itching stops; angry skin is soothed; uncertainty is dispelled, so little Poslam does so much.

Sold everywhere. For free sample write to: Poslam, Inc., Dept. B, 213 West 47th St., New York City.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of "Miramin" (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 1 ounce of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

An Old Recipe To Darken Hair

Common garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

Murphy will donate the conveyances. Saturday children from the city mission will be taken out. Mrs. George Doane has the matter in charge and those assisting her are Mrs. Frances Folinsbee, Mrs. Thor Jorgensen, Miss Nelly Magee, Mrs. Herbert McCoy, Miss Olga Jorgensen, Mrs. A. C. Anderson, Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy, Mr. Gus Miller and Mr. H. B. Whitehouse. Thirty children from the eighth grade of Park school also will pick apples for the Child Saving institute Saturday.

Mr. T. F. Stroud has agreed to haul all the apples and distribute them among the different charities. Those giving automobiles for the occasion are H. N. Nelson, who will donate four; Dr. Gifford, Rome Miller and Dr. Myra Welch.

The committee who made all arrangements with the farmers for the apples are Mr. H. B. Whitehouse, Mrs. Harriet MacMurphy, Miss Nelly Magee, Mrs. A. C. Anderson and Miss Schemp.
