

POTATO CROP NOW MOVING TO MARKET

Railroads Estimate That Almost Three Million Dollars Has Reverted Back to Farmers for Spuds.

While Omaha railroad freight officials have only estimates from their agents, they figure that between 60 and 75 per cent of the Nebraska and eastern Wyoming potato crop has been moved to market. This is the crop that is tributary to the Omaha market.

So far this fall the railroads have moved close to 3,000,000 bushels out of Omaha trade territory, practically all of the shipments coming to Omaha for consumption or for distribution to other markets.

The following figures indicate the approximate volume of the potato shipments so far this fall, the three roads being the ones that operate in the potato growing area of the state:

Burlington railroad, 1,000; Northwestern, 800; Union Pacific, 800 carloads. Under the loading to capacity rule the average load of these cars has been about 1,100 bushels each, or a total of 2,800,000.

Price Good for Growers.

In some of the potato growing districts of the state farmers have received considerably more than $1 for their potatoes, f. o. b. There have been only a few points of shipment where the price has been lower than this. One dollar a bushel is considered a fair average price, thus making a total of $2,800,000 that has gone back to the farmers for their potato crop that has been marketed.

Of the estimated 25 per cent of the potato crop not yet shipped to market, it is said that the greater portion has been put into cellars, or storage houses and that there is little danger of further damage from freezing, unless colder than zero weather should come.

Volunteer Rumors Cause Rush at Recruiting Offices

The young man who has been putting off enlisting "till a little later" is now thinking hard. The rumor that after December 15 no more volunteers will be taken into the army means that there will soon be a big rush at the recruiting offices.

It is well known that the volunteer has many advantages over the drafted man, as to choice of service, branch location, etc. All arms of the service are open now.

Recruiting officers are all anticipating a big run at once, although they take in a large number of men weekly as it is.

The Omaha army recruiting office was filled with boys seeking to enlist Monday morning. It is said there that at least a thousand volunteers are expected in the Omaha district this month, which will probably put Omaha ahead of any recruiting district in the United States.

Have Musical Program To Boost Early Shopping

In compliance with the request of the United States government through the National Council of Defense that merchants urge the public to do their shopping early in the day, the Burgess-Nash company has arranged for an eight-piece string orchestra to play on the balcony of its main floor every morning from 9 to 11.

The orchestra renders classical and popular numbers as well, opening every morning with the national anthem, "Star Spangled Banner."

In commenting on the innovation to a Bee reporter, Mr. Nash said: "We certainly want to do our part helping the government to win this war and we are complying with its every request for conservation of the various supplies as well as man force. The request of the National Council of Defense is certainly in keeping with the policy of conservation—it helps to conserve the man force of our organization."

Asserts He Murdered Mrs. Nethaway; is Being Held

Edward McGrath, a man who asserts he killed Mrs. C. L. Nethaway, climbed to the window ledge in his cell in the county jail Saturday night and attempted to commit suicide by diving headlong to the stone floor. He failed in his effort, suffering only a severe scalp wound.

McGrath was arrested last Thursday, parading down Center street in his union suit. He told officers at the jail that he was not only the murderer of Mrs. Nethaway, but that he also murdered a man in the 10-cent store five years ago.

The man has been sent to the County hospital, where he is being held for examination as to his sanity.

Eight South Side Men Leave for Camp Funston

WARTIME RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR

How to Make An Inexpensive Mixture That Will Darken Streaked or Faded Gray Hair.

Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home: Merely get a small box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs only 25 cents, and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in one ounce of water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use come in each box.

You need not hesitate to use Orlex, as a $100.00 gold bond comes in each box guaranteeing the user that Orlex powder does not contain silver, lead, iron, sulphur, mercury, aniline, coal-tar products or their derivatives. It does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy, and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger.—Adv.

Chilean Beauty Who Shot Her Husband on Trial for Murder

MRS. BIANCA DE SAULLES

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 19.—The trial of Mrs. Bianca de Saullés, Chilean heiress, for the murder of her divorced husband, John Longer de Saullés, politician and former Yale athlete, was begun today before Justice David F. Manning in the supreme court. It was expected that the jury box would be filled before evening.

Mrs. de Saullés' counsel has admitted that there is no dispute regarding the fact that she shot her former husband. While no announcements have been made, it has been intimated that "irresponsibility" growing out of mother love for her young son, "Jack," who by court order after the divorce trial was placed in the custody of the father for five months each year, may be the main plea. It was also indicated that it may be shown that the mother was driven to desperation by the fear that De Saullés was poisoning the mind of her only child against her and would supplant her in his son's affections.

Announcement has been made that no attack would be made on the character of Mr. de Saullés at the trial, which means that evidence taken at private hearings previous to the granting of the divorce will not be revealed.

Indications that the defense would be insanity were shown as soon as Mrs. de Saullés' counsel began examining talesmen, asking them whether they would accept insanity and mental incompetency, as a valid defense and would acquit if it was shown that at the time of the commission of a crime a defendant has labored under such defective reasoning as not to understand the nature and quality of the act.

The prosecution queried talesmen as to whether they would vote to convict of a crime punishable by death as readily in the case of a woman as of a man.

Mrs. de Saullés appeared self-composed when she entered the court room to face her ordeal. She was dressed plainly in a white shirtwaist and black skirt. Her brother and sister, who came here from Chile, had seats near her.

U. P. Watchman at Bridge At Columbus Killed

Ray Daugherty, watchman on the Union Pacific bridge over the Loup river, near Columbus was killed Sunday night presumably by a passing engine. Daugherty lives in Columbus and went on duty at 7 o'clock Sunday night. Monday morning when the day watchman went to relieve him, Daugherty could not be found.

In a search for Daugherty, on the bridge was found his watch and the heel of one of his shoes. These articles were found over a place in the river where the river is 15 feet deep. Daugherty was 49 years of age and married.

New Corn Prices Are Firm; Quality of Samples Poor

Corn receipts on the Omaha market were all of the new crop, and the prices unchanged from last Saturday, the offerings selling all the way from $1.10 to $1.35 a bushel. Bidding was slow and most of the samples found a poor sale on account of their bad condition. The percentage of moisture was large and much of the grain was soft. Receipts were 36 carloads.

Oat receipts were 73 carloads and prices were a half cent off, the sales being made at 65½ and 66½ cents a bushel.

There were 116 cars of wheat in and all of it was taken over by the food administration.

Potato Shower at Sun For Old People's Home

Next Friday and Saturday will be potato days at the Sun theater for the benefit of the Old People's home on Fontenelle boulevard. On these days the admission charge to the theater will be the regular price plus one potato from each patron and the management has agreed to give a potato for every one received at the box office or to give bushel for bushel for the institution mentioned.

On Saturday this arrangement will be in effect until 6 p. m. and on the same day from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. children will be admitted at half price plus one potato each.

It is believed that the Old People's home will receive enough potatoes from this source to carry the old folks through the winter.

Commerce Students Earn Large Sums Each Week

Your War Time Vacation

Take it in America's Foreign Quarter—of gay, laughing, dancing New Orleans.

This winter business will not pause for pleasure; but business must be halted from time to time for necessary relaxation. And nowhere can that relaxation be more readily found than in the French Quarter of America—New Orleans.

New Orleans is replete with foreign characteristics—even to the least and the humblest of her Creole restaurants. Nowhere else in America are there quaint, more interesting streets than in the Vieux Carre; nowhere else such time-worn houses of antique stone, whose every room is written in history; nowhere else such unique shops, such romantic latticed windows; such mysterious corridors, patios and courts.

But if outward New Orleans has that which is foreign, how much more so the gracious, mirthful spirit of the place—that esprit de Paris—that gay insouciance of Spain—guaranteed to put all care to flight. And the best of New Orleans is its nearness, especially when one travels on
