OH, BOY! OHIO FOR MINES SQUAD IN DIXIE IS, HELD TO SCORELESS TIE

Mongomery, Ala., Nov. 25 .- Auburn yesterday held the Western conference championship foot ball team of Ohio State university to a scoreless tie in a benefit game played before the Ohio National Guard division at Camp Sheridan. Ohio was the aggressor throughout, but when their goal line was in danger the Plainsmen beat back every assault.

"Chic" Harley, the visitors' star, twice had opportunities to achieve victory through field goals, but on both occasions his kicks were wide. Right Halfback Ducote for Auburn played almost as brilliantly as did Harley and his great punting proved a factor in counteracting Ohio State's smashing drives.

Potsy Clark Gives Funston Touchdown Which Beats Navy

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 25.—On a slippery field that gave the weighty army team a shade advantage the foot ball representatives from Camp Funston defeated the Great Lakes training school team, 7 to 0, yesterday. The one touchdown was made by "Potsy" Clark, former Illinois university star, now a lieutenant, after a thrilling 35-yard dash through a broken field. Clark put the ball on Navy's 3-yard line, where the sailors and is being installed, while the fin- braced and held for two downs, the army being penalized for holding on the third down. Clark then dropped back for a punt formation, but in-stead ploughed through for a touch-down and Beck kicked goal.

NONPAREILS WIN OVER SOLDIERS OF FORT CROOK

Take Hot Game at Melady's Meadows From Cream of Ex-Collegians at Big Balloon School.

BY FRANK QUIGLEY.

The Nonpareils added to their laurels yesterday afternoon at Melady's Medows, when they defeated the soldiers from Fort Crook by a score of 14 to 0.

The Nonpareils won the toss and hose to defend the east goal. Williams kicked off to Gribble, who advanced 15 yards. The soldiers gained their yards twice and were then forced to punt. Play was about even during the first quarter, but in the second quarter the champions unbackied some fast work and landed o nthe 15-yard line. Then a forward pass, Williams to Foran, netted a touchdown. Williams missed goal.

Give Back Touchdown.

After a heated discussion Captain Williams of the Nonpareils agreed not to accept the touchdown because the soldiers kicked so strenuously on account of the crowd surging on the field when the forward pass was nego-tiated. On the next play Flanagan uncorked seven yards and then Will-iams went through the line for a touchdown. Quigley kicked goal. Nothing doing for the balance of this

In the second half the soldiers kicked off to Hasson, who advanced 15 yards. Things went along about even during this quarter and during the final quarter Kasner recovered a fumble and rambled 40 yards for a touchdown. Quigley kicked goal.

Nonpareils Hold Tight.

During the last quarter the soldiers executed several skillfully negotiated forward passes and brought the pigskin to the seven-yard line, but four attempts to push the pigskin over proved futile and the whistle blew for the foot ballists to be ushered to 847 the showers with the final score 14 to 0 in favor of the Nonpareils.

For the Nonpareils, Flanagan and Williams played excellent ball on the offensive and Broz, the Nonpareils' center, was the particular bright light on the defense. Hiatt, Gribble and Faber were continually in the light Faber were continually in the lime-2,752 light for the Soldiers.
