French General So Describes American Soldiers After Observing Their Work in the Trenches.

Washington, American Army in France, Wednesday, Nov. 28.—The development of the men of the first American contingent in France in the science of war was described today as truly remarkable by the general commanding the division, who has been in the service for years.

"I have been in the army since I was a boy," he said. "During that time I have observed many American and many foreign soldiers, but never in my life have I seen anything equaling the men now here."

New Overcoats Issued.

The uniforms of the American soldier is undergoing a further change. It is a small one made necessary by conditions. A large number of troops have turned in their long overcoats to receive in exchange coats of the same material but much shorter in length.

Soldier Home on Furlough Suffers Broken Leg

Shenandoah, Ia., Nov. 29.—(Special.)—van Reeves, soldier, who was home on a 20 days' furlough from Camp Dodge to husk corn, broke his leg when he fell under the wheel of a wagon in the corn field Friday when he attempted to stop a frightened team.

There were two Thanksgiving day weddings in Shenandoah. Miss Margaret Murphy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Murphy was married at high noon to Dr. Gray London of Burlington, Vt.
