Soliloquy of Modern Eve

Does "what someone else thinks" ever stand in your way? Do you care a great deal what other folks say? Do you shape all your plans and take all your stands in a half-hearted sort of a way?

By ADELAIDE KENNERLY.

Does "what someone else thinks" ever stand in your way? Do you care a great deal what other folks say? In shaping your plans and taking your stands do you act in a half-hearted way?

Ah, beware! Of course you like friends—every one of us does—but are they ever made staunch and true because you acquiesce to their every expression? No, indeed! The "me too" people are the rubbish in the realm of thought—they are nothing. They are the, more or less, inconsequential fillers of society. They never venture and they never gain because that terrible fear of what someone else will think weights down every ambition.

How Friends Are Made. True friendship is made because you are true; because you have convictions, even though they may be opposite to those of your friends. You gain the respect and then love of people because of principle, honor, truthfulness, and honesty; because of originality and strength of character; because you are worth while—not because you are on every side that happens to be presented.

There is a wise little "me" who dwells within every body. "Me" should be the counsellor, the judge in the court of last appeals. Your Best Counsellor.

Only with the "me" as your guide will you ever amount to anything; only with the "me" planning your course will you achieve that which is worth while; only with "me" dictating and moulding your principles will your character be worthy; only with the "me" fighting your battles for right will you win over the enemy "cowardice" lurking around to draw you under the subservient waters of life.

The more courage you have the more friends will be true to you. Counsel "me" within you and what someone else thinks will fade into oblivion.

As Zero Overtakes Us Thoughtful Women Send Covers for the Cold

Two new, warm comforters have been sent to The Bee by Mrs. Charles Wooster of Eagle Island farm, wife of the "Silver Creek philosopher," for distribution to some needy family. "The Woman's Country club members made the comforters in the hope that they would keep some poor mother and her little ones warm. As The Bee is always doing kind things of this sort I know I am sending the comforters to the right place," wrote Mrs. Wooster.

The comforters will be given to some needy family through Mrs. George Doane of the Associated Charities.

Red Cross Work is Finding Encouragement In Every Section County

How far the ramifications of the Red Cross society extend and what the war work is doing in cementing the people in the small communities of the state is illustrated in the report of Mrs. Clement Chase, Red Cross field secretary, who has just returned from a speaking tour in Boyd county.

Bristow, with a population of 196 inhabitants, numbers 160 members in the Red Cross. There was one volunteer soldier to every six inhabitants, so no men were drafted from this district. At a recent Christmas sale to obtain funds for Red Cross work $1,140 was cleared in one day. One rooster was sold and resold until he brought $202. He will be stuffed and placed in the bank with this inscription: "A fellow who helped win the war."

Butte, which has a population of 750, last week shipped 400 hospital and knitted garments to the local Red Cross. Their sale netted $1,170. A rooster was sold 39 times, bringing $102. A hat, donated by a milliner, brought $52.

Spencer, with 500 population, gave a Japanese opera for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross, at which $150 was taken in.

Women drive 40 miles to come to Lynch, where they make surgical dressings in an abandoned saloon. The women packed 60 comfort kits containing 16 articles each. The wife of Dr. Hawkins came to Omaha recently to take the surgical dressings course in order to teach it to Boyd county women. The population of Lynch is 200.

Mrs. J. M. Kloke of Gross, is a blind woman who knitted eight sweaters in six weeks. Mrs. Kloke is a poor woman who cannot afford to do as much work as she would like. She will take orders to knit sweaters from women who cannot knit and will give one-half the proceeds to the Red Cross.

Women of Fairfield county, Connecticut, have undertaken the task of making and sending 5,000 pounds of jam to the wounded soldiers in France.

Crimson Cross

Our world has changed before our eyes—What things on earth are sure? The hearts that bleed, the hands that bleed, Rich wine from grief's unsparring press—These, with mankind, endure.

Hints for the Home

Paper bags used as gloves will protect the hands while you are blackening the stove. In washing a woolen dress, sweater or any garment that you wish to have retain its shape in drying, hang it on a wooden coat-hanger, fastening the hook securely to the line with a clothespin. A little chopped green peppers gives an agreeable flavor to stew or hamburger steak. You can save time and fuel in boiling potatoes by slicing them thin before putting them on to cook.

WOMAN'S PART IN WAR

Shall we say that women contribute only the bandages, the socks and the "kitts"? No, they contribute the fighters! What sort of soldiers will the women of the present day contribute to the nation and the world? Can they hope to be capable mothers or efficient wives if they are enfeebled and broken down by the diseases and weaknesses of the sex?

An affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs, is in general responsible for feminine nervousness, and an undermined constitution. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" is for inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been for nearly 50 years the most favorably known herbal tonic for women. The "Prescription" contains no alcohol, and is sold in tablet or liquid form. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for large trial pkg.

Omaha, Neb.—"As a special tonic I have taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it to give almost immediate relief in cases of nervousness or a weakened or run-down condition. I have taken this medicine since my earliest girlhood whenever my system seemed to require a tonic, and it has never failed me. I am very glad to recommend the Favorite Prescription to women and young girls who need such a tonic."—Mrs. Mary La Londe, 6301 N. 34th St.

Whenever my system seemed to require a tonic, and it has never failed me. I am very glad to recommend the Favorite Prescription to women and young girls who need such a tonic.
