Omaha, December 20, 1917. Spot arrivals of grain today were 159 cars Of these 32 were wheat, 74 corn, 40 oats, 6 rye and 9 barley.

A wire was received by the food administration late yesterday from Washington announcing that the embargo placed on corn and oats shipments to the east December 5 had been lifted, effective at once. This will open the eastern markets to the west s had been lifted, effective at once. This will open the eastern markets to the west an denable the shipment of grain that has been sold for eastern shipment as soon as roads can furnish cars and handle the business. It is understood that the embargo was removed owing to the protest of corn millers in the east who have been unable to secure supplies from Illinois since the embargo was put on. The food control warns them that corn and oats users shall not ship more grain than needed for actual requirements, with a further threat that if this notice is not heeded it will probably become necessary to renew the embargoes, Another influence in the market was the starting of a movement for the removal of the market is without a balance wheel and therefore there is no chance of hedging sales.

Guaranteed 7% Preferred Shares

American Security Company Omaha, Nebraska

Authorized Capital, $250,000.00

(Incorporated 1900) In order to meet the increasing demands of an expanding business, we offer a limited issue of our 7% preferred shares, par value $100 each, interest payable January 1 and July 1, shares redeemable after three years at holder's option; issued fully paid and non-assessable, and free from personal tax in Nebraska. These preferred shares of the American Security Company take dividend priority over the common stock and have a prior lien upon all the company's assets over the common stock.

The Security Behind the Shares of This Company consists of real estate, mortgages on real estate, government bonds, other gilt-edge securities and cash.

An Extra Cash Dividend of 1%

will be paid to all subscribers sending in their orders between now and January 1. Subscriptions of $500 or more preferable. United States bonds accepted as cash. These securities offer

A Safe and Attractive Investment

They are intended for permanent investments, but shares redeemable after three years at holder's option. In case of over-subscription, preference will be given to the shareholders of Home Builders on all orders received up to January 1, 1918.

The American Security Company

chartered by the state of Nebraska to do a general investment business, handles real estate, mortgages, stocks and bonds, and high grade investments for itself and for others on a commission basis. It is the fiscal agent for Home Builders and other companies.

Investors are invited to examine these securities without delay, as the issue is limited. All inquiries promptly answered. Address
