For Saturday Only--

Men's Good Winter OVERCOATS

Specially Reduced to $21.50

If we could show you these overcoats, so you could examine in your own home or place of business, and see how great the values are, there would be no need of this newspaper announcement, for you would be here early in the morning, eager to make your selection.

And, it is decidedly to your advantage to do so, whether you need an overcoat now or not, for the styles are staple and conservative, which means they will be good for next season and then, with the price of woollen materials climbing out of sight, one will do well to provide for the future.

The coats are made of the best quality overcoating materials, splendidly lined throughout, in blues, blacks, grays and mixtures; made according to the rigid specifications of the

Burgess-Nash Standard

of quality, which means the best possible value offered anywhere at the regular price, but a really sensational offering at the reduced price for Saturday only. All sizes.
