A Lesson On Thrift

At the close of the Franco-Prussian War, France had to pay a billion dollars as war indemnity.

The idea of baby bonds—rentes, as they are called by the French—was evolved, and the people of France could buy those little bonds at post offices—almost everywhere—and from the little savings of the French people, France paid the indemnity and started her people on the road to thrift.

England is doing the same fine thing now, raising about 100 million dollars a week.

Now, our Government has adopted the same idea, to raise war funds, by offering

Thrift Stamps, at 25c
It's a duty—a necessity that every man, woman and child buy liberally of these baby bonds, and thereby not only help the Government in this great cause for democracy but at the same time help themselves by putting something aside, with the best possible security for the future. When you are in the store tomorrow or the next day go to our Post Office and buy one or more of the Thrift Stamps at 25c. A Thrift card will be given you, upon which you paste the stamps. It holds 16, and they will cost you 16 times 25c, or $4.00. Then bring the filled Thrift card to us, and by adding 12c we will issue a

U. S. A. War Saving Certificate
Keep this till January 1, 1923, and it becomes redeemable for $5.00. In other words, the Government has paid you (without fuss and worry or handing over interest) 4% interest compounded quarterly, or, to be exact, 4.41%, nearly 4½%. Each month adds a cent to the final cash payment when you trade Thrift Stamps for Saving Certificates—total cost in January, $4.12; in February, $4.13, and so on.

Buy as many Stamps Monday as you possibly can.

Timely—The Arrival of Beautiful Hy-Art Silk Petticoats at $3.85

Again we make our monthly offering of Beautiful Silk Petticoat Models—as shown above. The January styles go on sale tomorrow. As usual, they are made of a splendid quality of soft taffeta silk, have the permanent "Justo Top"—which requires no readjustment unless one changes to a larger and smaller corset—and comes in the very latest colorings.

All for $3.85, because we, in co-operation with other stores throughout the country, take all the petticoats made by the $3.85 Hy-Art factories.

In this way many thousands are made in only two styles at one time, effecting large manufacturing savings, which, added to the large savings in doing away with wholesaling expenses, permits us to offer such unusual values that they practically sell themselves.
