

YOU are paying yourself a first-class dividend in buying from this Suit stock on Saturday.

THE difference between the prices we quote and those we would have to quote if we bought these Suits today, you save.

THIS offering is brand new merchandise—ordered months ago, but just received from the makers.

IF the war continues another year, you will pay the highest prices for clothes in your generation

IF the unusual opportunity which this sale affords brings into this store men who are comparative strangers here, we will be more than repaid and they will be glad that an unusual announcement enabled them to know where this remarkably good clothing can be bought.

2,100 All-Wool SUITS Worsted

Hart Schaffner & Marx Make

At Less Than the Wholesale Cost Today

$29.50

That's the almost unbelievable news for Saturday from this Great Men's Clothing Department

And this is not all—for while they are below the wholesale cost today, they are much further below the cost that will prevail a little while from now.

We Contracted for These Suits Months Ago
And You Save the Difference Between the Cost Then and Now

While merchandise is daily increasing in value, we are merchants and not speculators, and are satisfied to take a fair profit on goods that we purchased so advantageously, giving the customer the benefit of his full share of the savings.
