

planning decorations. Miss Ruth Fitzgerald will give a shower Wed-Mrs. Jay Burns of this city, to Miss nesday, and Tuesday. April 9, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burket will entertain at an Mo. evening bridge.

Early Summer Bride.

Miss Nellie Pritchard will be an bride's parents.

early summer bride, and her engagement to Mr. Samuel C, Maxwell is announced today. This young couple | Dodge, Iowa. He won his commisare to be envied, for they will enjoy real farm life, as Mr. Maxwell is one of the up-to-date young farmers of officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, Minnesota, and on January 1 he the state. received his promotion to first lieu-

The betrothal of Miss Nuomi tenant. Towle to "Fritz" Buch $z, which was announced Saturday, does not sur-prise us in the least. In fact, we have Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carr have brise us in the reast. In fact, we with the iust been sitting back waiting for it all winter, and here it comes with the daffodils and the tulips. Bo.h the Waiter S. Byrne of this city, now on waiter S. Byrne of this city, how on young people are so very well known that everyone is deeply interested in the romance, and wouldn't it be lovely if the beautiful Towle home used to be opened for the wedding? would be opened for the wedding? leave.

The bride-to-be is coming for a visit very soon, and she wilf be luncheoned and teacd, you may be sure. Social Brightening.

With the end of the Lenten season the social calendar will begin to brighten, we are sure. There will be no cessation of women's activities; in fact they will be increased. With the Liberty loan drive soon to be launched all our women will be en-gaged in the mysterious art of selling bonds. They have been taking in With the end of the Lenten season Byrne will act as best man for his bonds. They have been taking in-

Mr. and Mrs. George Turner restructions for some time and as they structions for some time and as they are to have a bank all their own on Texas. Thursday they leave for Calithe court house grounds anyone fornia, to be gone two or three weeks. would be delighted to buy a bond Upon their return Mrs. Turner goes rom these charming bankers. And lon't let us forget the great parade most of the winter. Mrs. Turner has scheduled for Saturday. Pick out done concert work there. One of her scheduled for Saturday. Fick out rour lowest heeled shoes and join the great army. All business will suspend and the streets will be a mass of wav-ing flags, for every woman will carry, week there upon her return east. done concert work there. One of her most delightful experiences was sing-to their summer home in Fairacres. Mrs. George Palmer and her daugh. ter, Jean, are at Atlantic City, thu to their summer home in Fairacres. Mrs. George Palmer and her daugh. ter, Jean, are at Atlantic City, thu to their summer home in Fairacres. Robert Morsman has returned from California, where he went to see his school at Sheffield, Mass

The wedding will take place Monday afternoon at the home of the Personals Mr. Burns is now a first lieutenant in the 352d infantry, located at Camp sion as second lieutenant at the first Mr. F. E. Alexander and his sisters, the Misses Alexander have closed their house and will be at the Blackstone for a few weeks. The young couple will make their Mrs. Leila Schropshire has just received word that her husband, Corporal Schropshire, has arrived in France. Corporal Schropshire is with Company 14, motor sup /ly division. Mr. and Mrs. A., Herzberg have had as their guest Mr. C. K. Sunshine of Cleveland, O., for a few days.

Lieutenant Harold T. Landeryou of It is to be a quiet home wedding. the 337th field artillery, who has been only intimate 'riends and relatives as stationed at Camp Dodge, left Saturguests. Miss Ruth Fitzgerald is to be the maid of honor and Harry Landeryou will enter the School of day for Fort Sill, Okl. Lieutenant last two years. spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Martin will move from the Blackstone Monday Morse; has had his spring vacation

Miss Elinor Kountze, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, was chosen for The Bee's Easter Sunday society feature. Posed with an armful of Easter lilies, little Miss Kountze, with her sunny curls and sweet expression, seems the true embodiment of the Easter spirit.

> SOCIAL CALENDAR

EASTER SUNDAY-

Mueller-Van Dusen wedding in Washington, D. C. Public opening of Fine Arts exhibit in new Masonic temple. Tea for Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford of Denver, Mrs. F. H. Cole, hostess, 4 to 6 p. m.

MONDAY-

- Alco club dancing party in Turpin's academy.
- Le Mars club dancing party in Keep's academy. Alpha Phi Sorority, Miss Catherine Sturtevant, hostess.

TUESDAY-

Prettiest Mile Ladies' Golf club, game on Miller park links. WEDNESDAY-

Dunn-Liddell wedding in St. Cecilia's cathedral. Miscellaneous shower for Miss Elizabeth Carr, Miss Ruth Fitzgerald, hostess.

Phil Beta Pi dinner-dance at the Blackstone.

THURSDAY-

Closing concert in the Charity Course given by Alice Nielsen in Boyd theater.

Afternoon concert given by junior members of Tuesday Musical club in Boyd theater.

Original Cooking club, Mrs. Ward Burgess, hostess.

FRIDAY-Afternoon tea for Mrs. Harland Woods, Mrs. H. B. Bergquist, hostess.

SATURDAY-

Cadet Officers' club dancing party in Keep's academy. Dinner given by University of Chicago alumni at Blackstone.

Floyd Smith, jr., will be home latter for her Easter vacation this father, E. M. Morsman, who has spent week. Mrs. Palmer will remain at the winter there. The latter will re-Atlantic City until after her son, main west until the first of May.

Harkness Kountze is in Indian apolis for his Easter holidays with Robert Morsman has returned from a schoolmate from the Berkshire Mrs. E. A. Pegau chaperoned the party.

such a systematic system of unwrapping, sorting and packing that the mere men were only able to look on

The carload was shipped in perfect order and on time, thanks to the wo-famous Mary Boyle O'Reilly and had been thrilled to her very depths by the stirring tales of her life behind the lines, Hurrying out of the Fontenelle she passed a little group of suffragists. Mrs. H. C. Sumney, who seemed to be spokesman, was

"Wasn't that a wonderful suffrage speech, wasn't that a plea for equal franchise though?" And the little group of women, which included Mrs. Charles E. Johannes, Mrs. W. H. Gar-rett, Mrs. W. F. Baxter and Miss Mona Cowell, all acquiesced. What a versatile woman is Mary O'Reilly, thought Gabby, she has won the hearts of the newspaper scribes with her witty stories of newspaper life, the Red Cross women love her for the words of cheer and encourage-ment she has brought them and now the suffragists claim that she is pleading their cause, which she certainly

F UTURE generations are going to be thoroughly prepared for any emergency if they are all like Junior

This coming young citizen is se eager to learn his Boy Scout First Aid tactics that he bandages everything in sight. It's a common sight to see legs of the dining room table, the buffet, or arms of library chairs in the handsome home of his mother, Mrs. F. A. Nash, scientifically wound

Of course the practical scout prefers to use his small sister, Emma, as a subject and only resorts to furniture when she is away.

The other day Mrs. Nash found Junior performing first aid on Em-ma's chubby little knee. The little On Thursday, April 11, a charity ball for the benefit of the boys' in-formance until her mother reminded her that badly wounded people gen-Auditorium. The hope is to raise crally register intense suffering.

Charity Ball

to Kearney

of it.

Chicago Alumnae Dinner.

Irma Gross at Central High school.

Birthday Party.

$10,000, which will be spent to buy 15 or 20 acres of land outside of the A N Omaha girl wears $100 silk hose city on which to build a home for A cording to a representative of according to a representative of boys who might otherwise be sent an eastern hosiery company, who was in the city this week, and told ni re-Father E. J. Flanagan has started ceiving the order from one of Oma-

the home on a small scale at Twenty- ha's exclusive stores. fifth and Dodge streets, in the old The hose were made especially for Byron Reed home, and has about 30 this particular debutante. A pearock boys there under his care now, but design is embroidered on the ankles, wants a place large enough for 200. vari-colored threads have been csed Archbishop Harty is sponsoring the ball, and Mrs. Dan W. Gaines, Miss Cassie Riley and Miss Alice O'Brien it came in," said the young salesman, are the board of directors in charge "and said we felt tempted to forward a $7 pair of stockings to the young woman and to tell her we were giv-ing the remaining $93 to the Ked The alumnae of the University of Crose" ÷

M RS. W. E. RHOADES will never refuse her photograph to a newspaper man, again-at least, she ought not to. The Bee recently used a photograph of this faithful membership chairman of the Visiting Nurse association in connection with the the dinner. Reservations should be campaign for new members. In remade to Principal Masters or Miss sponse, Mrs. Rhoades received a check with this nice little note attached: "I saw your picture in the Master Ernest Pegau was 12 years paper and fell in love with it immediately, so am sending you a check for membership in the Visiting Nurse asold Saturday, and to celebrate the event he invited 12 of his boy friends sociation."

to a matinee party at the Orpheum. The note was from an Omaha woman living on the north side Chicago will entertain at dinner Saturday evening at the Blackstone in honor of Prof. Frank Miller and several other University of Chicago men who will be in the city. The committee is endeavoring to reach all soldiers at nearby forts who are former university men, that they may attend

