Omaha Ahead of Last Year's Figures in Several Lines

Figures prepared by the bureau of publicity of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce show that Omaha is running ahead of last year in several lines of endeavor. Corn receipts in Omaha last week were 920 cars, against 921 for Chicago.

Omaha's Position in—	Last Week	Last Year
Corn receipts	920	921
Wheat receipts	3	6
Oat receipts	3	2
Calic receipts	2	2
Hog receipts	2	2
Sheep receipts	2	2
Bank clearings	10	14
Foundations	34	29

The bureau of publicity has started a daily service on the bulletin board of the Chamber of Commerce showing Omaha's grain and live stock receipts as compared with other cities.

Nebraska Hospital Unit Is Now Part of the Army

The University of Nebraska hospital unit, now in training at Camp Dodge will henceforth be known as Base Hospital Unit No. 49. Major A. C. Stokes is no longer at the head of the organization. Major L. Mitchell, formerly stationed with the American forces in Honolulu, is in charge. The change is no reflection on Dr. Stokes' ability, but the war department has decided to place an experienced army officer in command.

HARRY WILLIAMS SENTENCED FOR ROONEY MURDER

Harry Williams, first of the five alleged jewel bandits to be convicted on the charge of killing Detective Frank Rooney, was sentenced to 20 years at hard labor by Judge Redick in criminal court Wednesday afternoon. A motion by the defendant's attorneys for a new trial was overruled.

When asked if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced, Williams entered into a general denial of the killing and said that witnesses had lied during the trial. He was nervous and looked worried, in direct contrast to his calm demeanor during the trial.

Samuel Stone, shot through the left ear when he attempted to escape during a gun battle with detectives the night of January 30, through an upstairs window, was found guilty of second degree murder in a recent trial is now awaiting sentence of the court. The trial of Thomas McKay, will begin Monday. Frank Martin contemporary, and Burl C. Kirk, leader of the gang, are in the county jail awaiting trial.

Big Four Closes Offices and Coffey Goes to St. Louis

In compliance with the instruction of Director General McAdoo, the Big Four Railroad company has begun sending out notices ordering the closing of the off-line offices. The Omaha office is one of those that is hit and L. M. Coffey, commercial agent, has been asked to close up the business here and vacate the rooms in the Woodmen of the World not later than May 31.

Mr. Coffey has wired the Big Four headquarters that he will have company affairs in shape so that he can leave Omaha about May 15. He is informed that he will be transferred to the St. Louis offices, where he will retain the title of commercial agent and that his salary will be the same as now. In making the transfer, the company bears all the expenses of moving.

In St. Louis Mr. Coffey will look after the routing of freight, the loading of cars, besides attending to numerous other duties. He will take his stenographer with him.

Mr. Coffey has been the Big Four's Omaha representative for three years, having come here from St. Louis, which was his home for many years.

Compares Rule of Grand Chief In Line With Kaiser's Plans
