BARNES IN GIANT DEBUT DEFEATS WILY DODGERS

Coombs Goes Up in the Air in One Bad Inning, But Otherwise Holds His Own.

New York, April 17.—New York again defeated Brooklyn today, Barnes, in his Giant debut, shutting out the visitors, 2 to 0. Coombs also pitched well for Brooklyn, but had one bad inning. In the fourth Young walked and went to third on Kauff's single. On O'Mara's wild throw to second Young scored and Kauff reached third, from where he scored on Burns' infield out. Score: Brooklyn, 2; New York, 0.

The plate, however, was usually winning, 8 to 1. Hamilton also was hit hard, but managed to keep the safeties well scattered. Leo Hages got two doubles and three singles in five times up. Score: Pittsburgh, 8; Cincinnati, 1.

Philadelphia Wins in Ninth. Philadelphia, April 17.—Philadelphia won in the ninth, 1 to 0. The local team never had a chance, the score being 14 to 2. Both Philadelphia pitchers were hit hard and their support was poor. Herzog played his first game for Boston and prevented two runs by a spectacular catch of a fly in short center field.

The board also denied his application for a change of his classification from 2-A to 4-A.

Coach Mulligan will take 10 men with him, but has not decided who they will be.

Standing of Teams

Those making the trip will be chosen from the following: Floyd Payne, Eugene Taxwell, Arthur and "Turk" Logan, Hugh Carlson, Nelson, "Nick" Mayne, Dave Noble, Joe McConney, Wallace Johnson, and Herman Swoboda.

Sprinter Runs Greatest Race of His Life in Escaping Huns. Paris, April 17.—Frank L. Baylies of New Bedford, Mass., a Lafayette flyer and now a member of the "Stork" escadille to which the famous Captain Guynemer belonged, made a thrilling escape from Germans who were pursuing him across No Man's Land, where he was obliged to come down after an aerial combat.

Baylies' machine landed about 500 yards from the enemy trenches. The Germans, who had been watching his descent, began peppering his machine with bullets. Baylies leaped from his plane and made all speed for the French lines. The Germans left their trenches in pursuit, keeping up a hot fire with rifles and machine guns.

Chasseurs from the French line, witnessing the race, opened fire on the Germans, killing one and driving the others back to their trenches. Baylies, who has a record as an athlete, declared never before had he covered the ground so fast as in the last 60 yards.

Second Baseman Niehoff Signs With St. Louis National Team. St. Louis, April 17.—Bert Niehoff, second baseman, obtained by the St. Louis Nationals from the Philadelphia Nationals today signed his contract with St. Louis. President Branch Rickey of the St. Louis club said Niehoff at no time was a holdout from the Cardinals, but had refused to sign with Philadelphia.

Jack Smith, star outfielder for the St. Louis Nationals, holdout who was paid a bonus to sign a contract for this year, received word today that he had been placed in Class I of the draft and would be called in May.

What Former Rourke Did in Big League Openings. Six former Rourkes participated in opening games in the two major leagues yesterday. Some of them attracted prominence by sensational playing; others failed to hit their stride.

Earl Smith, former star left fielder for the Omaha club, was a shining light in the St. Louis Browns victory over the world champion White Sox. Earl, batting in the leadoff position, cracked out two hits in six times at bat. One was a double. He also accepted six chances in the field.

Ernie Krueger, former Rourke catcher, horned in the New York Brooklyn game long enough to bat for Grymes in the ninth inning and to crack out a single.

Bert Shotton, another former Rourke left fielder, was on the job in Washington with two hits in three times at bat.

Peterkin Kuidoff, Don Carlos Ragon and Sam Agnew didn't do so well. Peterkin, holding down second for the Cubs, failed to connect for any hits in four trips to the plate and Agnew's record with the Boston Red Sox was three journeys to the rubber with no excitement. Don Carlos was hammered from the box by the Phils.

Central High Sprinter May Upset Dope at Lincoln. A surprise may be sprung at the Omaha-Lincoln High track meet Saturday at Lincoln when the winner of the 100 and 200-yard dashes across the finishing line, "Nick" Mayne of Omaha Central High is the sprinter doped to furnish the surprise. It has been predicted that "Nick" will finish even before Dave Noble in the 100-yard dash.

The team Coach Mulligan will take to Lincoln has not yet been named.

BOSTON RED SOX ROB ATHLETICS OF 3RD VICTORY

Shang's Single in Ninth, With Bases Full, Scored Two Runs and Brought Another Straight.

Boston, April 17.—Shang's single to right in the ninth with the bases full, scored two runs and gave Boston its third straight victory over Philadelphia today, 5 to 4. It was Shang's first appearance in a Boston uniform. Philadelphia twice held the lead. In seven innings Leonard struck out nine men and allowed only four hits in that time, but weakened in the eighth and ninth.

NYE REPORTS TO OMAHA CLUB; TWO MILITARY GAMES

Otto Nye, the only 1917 veteran, except pitchers, to report to the Rourkes this year, arrived in Omaha Wednesday morning. Nye at first did not intend to report, owing to his draft classification, A-1, but Sunday Rourke wired him to come on so Otto shook the dust of Springfield from his heels and arrived at Rourke park Wednesday morning.

The Rourkes now have two third sackers, Nye and Donica, but either one may be played at some other infield position. Both Nye and Donica, too, are liable for military service. Donica is a member of a local artillery regiment at La Porte, Ind., where he makes his home.

The Rourkes are gradually showing improvement and Manager Bill Jackson is becoming more optimistic over the outlook. He is still looking for an infielder and a seasoned pitcher, though.

Two military games are on the program. The first will be played on Saturday, April 20, at 10 o'clock. The second will be played on Sunday, April 21, at 10 o'clock.

Jess Willard-Fred Fulton Fight May Be Held in the Twin Cities

Minneapolis, Minn., April 17.—The Jess Willard-Fred Fulton world heavyweight boxing championship, scheduled for July 4, will be staged in an arena to be erected in the mid-way district between St. Paul and Minneapolis, according to an announcement made here today.

Robert Seiberlich, state boxing commissioner, made the announcement after a long distance telephone talk with Colonel J. C. Miller, promoter of the contest, who is in Chicago, in compliance with Minnesota law, the fight will be limited to 10 rounds. The state commission, however, will waive its rule against a decision and will permit naming of the winner at the finish, Seiberlich added.

Hundreds of circus seats, to be shipped from Chicago, will necessitate an outlay of approximately $20,000. Colonel Miller has asked assistance of Twin City business men. A fund of $10,000 already has been pledged, it was said. The seating capacity of the arena to be constructed will be more than 35,000.

Chicago, April 17.—(Col. J. C. Miller, promoter of the Willard-Fulton championship boxing match said today: "We have been in negotiation with the Minneapolis men for several days, but no contract has yet been signed. I will probably go to Minneapolis in a few days. I also am negotiating with fight promoters in several other cities who have submitted definite bids for the fight."

gram for the Rourkes for the weekend. Saturday Jackson's men clash with the 41st infantry team at Fort Crook. The 41st infantry team, on which are many ex-professionals, won the championship of the twin cities last fall and it is said to be an even better team now than then. That being the case, the Rourkes have a battle on their hands.

The big military event comes off Sunday. On that day the cantonment team from Camp Dodge will play the Rourkes. In addition, Mike and Tommy Gibbons, two of the classic middleweight fighters in the country, will give a sparring exhibition, and Earl Caddock, world's champion wrestler, will give a wrestling exhibition. All of the receipts from this game will go to the Camp Dodge athletic fund.
