RALLY IN NINTH WINS FOR DODGE; SCORE FIVE RUNS

Tom Sheehan Holds Rourke to Four Scattered Hits and Mates Hammer Home Victory.

Less than 1,000 fans saw the 351st field hospital division base ball team of Camp Dodge walloping the Rourke 6 to 1 at Rourke park yesterday afternoon.

The hesitancy of the well known sun, raw atmosphere coupled with the disappointment of Earl Caddock and Mike Gibbons took a swift rap at the attendance.

Mr. Thomas Sheehan, late of Connie Mack's hurling corps, was the principal reason for the Rourke defeat. Mr. Sheehan was in rare form and four scattered hits was all the enjoyment he permitted Jackson's jets.

Then in the ninth stanza with the game a tie, the Camp Dodge banged three of their five hits. One of them was a triple when the bases were loaded. Five runs and the Rourkes were whitewashed.

Bases are Filled. A base on balls started the fireworks in the ninth. On an attempted sacrifice, Lingle threw wild to first. Another sacrifice was attempted and this time Fuhr committed the faux pas. He tried to catch the runner at third and was late. Thus were the bases filled with no outs.

Then came the triple. Jimmy Tierney, recently snared from the Kansas City club and a one time Rourke, manufactured the hit. It was a beautiful blow which went clear to the right field fence. Three runs.

Art Ewoldt, member of the championship Des Moines team last year, scored Tierney with a single and Wayland Ellis, formerly a catcher with Cedar Rapids, scored Ewoldt with another hit.

The Camp Dodgers scored one run in the fifth off Corey with a walk, sacrifice and hit. Omaha's lone tally was counted on a double by Bill Jackson followed by Donica's single.

The other two Rourke hits were made by Pratt and Defate. Pratt's was a double.

WET GROUNDS CUT DOWN NUMBER OF AMATEUR GAMES

Crowds on the Bleachers of the City Lots Are Well Paid, for Fairly Good Games Are Put Up.

By Frank Quigley. Keen foresight on the part of General Earl Higgins, the boss of the Greater Omaha league, made it possible for the members of this league to massage the ivories yesterday afternoon with fear of being molested in event the sky evinced signs of a clear complexion.

Although the sun broke loose yesterday afternoon it would have been a difficult task to fix the enclosed parks in condition for a high-class brand of base ball.

Couldn't Digest This. Said incident could not be digested by the pill hoisters in class B and C as a consequence, president Jacob Isaacson of the association was aroused from his hayland of dreams at an early hour.

The City League joined the procession yesterday, but failed to chalk the mark as expected. Although the Walter G. Clarks through their manager at the last meeting promised allegiance to the City league, nevertheless the Clarks failed to show up for their battle with the Stags.

Score Was Close. The Tomanecks changed their monicker to the Parsley Commission Co. and took a close row from the Riggs Optical Co., score 6 to 5.

AT THE THEATERS

'The Passing Show of 1917' at the Boyd.

Let us begin this passing brief chronicle of last night's happenings at the Boyd by stating one resonant fact: DeWolf Hopper established the record of enthusiasm for the evening by a patriotic address between acts.

He spoke as a citizen of the United States, thoroughly aroused against the Hun, and earnestly invoked his hearers to the utmost endeavor to aid in winning the war.

The show itself is typically Winter Garden. It overflows with girls in all sorts of costumes, exudes nonsense in great gobs, and mingles mirth and music in endless but swiftly changing form.

DeWolf Hopper, Johnny Dooley, Mildred Elaine and Emily Miles literally "kild the life" out of "The Wanderer," with a burlesque in which the son comes home broke, but honest, and the daughter goes forth to bring the family some return for its money by getting involved in a scandal.
