Des Moines, Ia., May 7 .- (Special Telegram.)-Omaha won the fina! game of the series from Des Moines today, 8 to 4, in a sloppy game of 10 errors and 26 hits, good for 33 bases. The Boosters trailed all the way as the visitors hit Dressen hard so long

Wielding? the Hammer

By FRED S. HUNTER. SOCIETY reporter heralding today's largest event probably would proceed something like this:

In previous years the start of the Western league season in Omaha has been the occasion for much excitement and enthusiasm. Civic organizations held rousing rallies, silverwild, but effective against Philadel- tongued orators made eloquent phia todas and it was not until two speeches, business houses announced they would close part of the day so their employes could see the game, and the business of the city was widely threatened. Then some of the fans went to the ball game.

This year, however, everything has been comparatively quiet. It is just as well. These are war times. Too pitcher's defeat. much cresendo has a bad effect, In breaking crowd will turn out.

The team has been playing pretty good base ball. The hitting has been good and so has the fielding. The pitching has been only fair, but that i to be expected the first week or so o the season. It will improve. We re peat it is a good team and it deserve the support of the Omaha fans. Th Western league also deserves the sup port of the fans. Prospects for prosperous season are anything bu rosy. The club owners have exhibited true courage in deciding to tempt a fate which offers little and threatens much. Other leagues have thrown up the sponge without a fight. The Western league is one of half a dozen that is fighting. A good fighter deserves encouragement.

One Blessing.

is not too good for we have delightful visions of the courageous major going
