YORK

U. S. Steel Taken in Large Lots Continues to Advance. Trading Confined Mainly to Speculative Issues.

New York, June 15.—Speculative stocks contributed the chief percentage to to-day's dull and contracted trading, steels, equipments, motors and tobaccos over-shadowing the investment group. United States Steel was again steadily accumulated states Steel was again steadily accumulated in large individual lots at a net advance of 2 points to 105 %. Republic Iron gained 3 points and Crucible, Midvale and Sloss-Sheffield steels, Baldwin Locomotive and New York Air Brake rose 1 to 1% points General Motors forfeited part of its 4% point advance, but other automobile shares and their subsidiaries were 1 to 2% points higher.

Royal Dutch was again the striking feature of the petroleum division, holding virtually all its 7 point gain, or a net advance of almost 13 points in two days.

Rails and other investment stocks were steady to firm, Reading starting with a lemonstration of strength, but yielding oward the close. The heavy shifting of loans to meet income tax payments was reflected in the bank statement, actual loans expanding by $103.600,000, cash holdings of member banks in the local federal reserve institutions increasing almost $35,000,000 and excess reserves showing a gain of about $35,500,000. The bond market was narrow and feature-

O'Leary Fled in Old Clothes.

Declares Federa! Prosecutor New York, June 15 .- Jeremiah A. O'Leary, the New York lawyer and Sinn Fein leader under indictment here for complicity in two German espionage and treason plots, left New York for St. Louis May 7, attired in old clothes "so as to look like a bum."

This assertion was part of Assistant District Attorney Barnes' opening statement at the trial in federal court today of O'Leary's brother, John J. O'Leary, and Arthur L. Lyons on charge of conspiring to thwart justice by helping him to escape.

O'Leary fled on the eve of his trial for publishing alleged seditious anticonscription articles in the magazine Bull, of which he was formerly editor.

Confer With Men, But Bar Representatives of Any Union.

Officials of the Omaha Street Railday company declare they are willing to discuss grievances of their employes individually or collectively, but they refuse to hold a conference with the men as representatives of a union.

This is the text of a communication which has been posted in all of the street car barns. It is authorized by President Wattles.

The letter makes it plain that any conference between disgruntled employes and officials of the company must be attended only by individual employes or committees consisting of of the company confer with the men employes, and by no representatives to arbitrate the differences. employes, and by no representatives of a labor organization.

Street railway officials declare another wage increase is out of the question. Three increases in wages thave been made since January 1. Tanuary 1 the wage scale in Omaha cents per hour the first year and an cents per hour the first year. Street railway officials declare anwas boosted I cent an hour; on May 1, 2 cents an hour, and on June 1. 5 cents an hour, making a total boost of eight cents an hour in the last six months. Trainmen now are receiving 35 and 40 cents an hour.

The three increases, officials as-sert, will total $250,000 to $260,000 durin the year. Overhead expenses also have been increased 25 to 100 per cent during the last year, they say. As the revenue has not increased, they declare no further pay increase can be made.

Western Smelting Firm

Kansas Girl Weds Long Island Man Over Telegraph Wire

New York, June 15 .- Dots and dashes of the telegraph code took the place of spoken words in the marriage last night of Lydia Pearce of Lyndon, Kan., and Private Leo Strohtagel, an artilleryman at Camp Mills, whose nuptial vows were flashed by wire between Emporia, Kan., and the Long Island cantonment.

The ceremony was performed in 15 minutes. An army chaplain officiated in the telegraph office at Camp Mills, dictating to a telegrapher his questions and the answers of the bridegroom, and at Emporia a magistrate interrogated the bride.

Omaha was one of the few metropolitan cities devoid of this public conveinence, and when the city commissioners failed to take up the matter or give it any encouragement, members of the board went down into their own pockets and in a limited way tried to remedy the defect, spending $250 in so doing.

Roy Towl, one of the newly elected city commissioners and an associate member of the Omaha Real Estate board, was requested to make an address to the members at the last regular meeting.
Fund Now Available.

Mr. Towl was one of the those who felt Omaha was backward in the matter of not having street signs and he told the board that there was now $5,000 in a fund to be used for this purpose and that the work of painting the signs on telephone and other posts at street intersections would start immediately. Another thing that Omaha is deficient in, and which is remarked upon by visitors to the city, is the lack of public drinking fountains. Such fountains are liberally distributed about most metropolitan cities as a matter ob public convenience. On many of the main streets of large :ities sani-
