A pretty bride of the week is Mrs. Patrick J. Cleary, who was formerly Miss Kathleen Russell. The wedding was very quiet, the members of the two families being guests at a wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell, just before the young couple left on their western wedding trip. Mr. Cleary expects to be called to the colors very soon and his bride will make her home with her parents.

Summer Vacation Plans

Mrs. Arthur Metz and Miss Olga Metz expect to leave soon to spend the summer on the Metz ranch near Cody, Neb.

Mrs. Arthur Crittenden Smith and her family, after a visit in Boston, have gone to Wianno, on Cape Cod, and will remain there until the first of August, when they will all go to the Profile house, in the White mountains.

Mrs. Charles Offutt, Miss Virginia Offutt and Mrs. M. T. Barlow are the guests of Miss Martha Folda at her beautiful country home, Englemar, an island in Green bay.

Miss Dorothy Hall will leave next week for several weeks in the east, where she will be with her sister, Mrs. Ayer and Captain Acraig at Camp Devens, Mass.

Mrs. E. H. Howland, Miss Marjorie Howland and Mrs. E. P. Boyer expect to leave the first week in July to spend the summer at Clear Water, Minn.

Mrs. S. S. Caldwell left Sunday for Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Donald McFerron of Hoopes-town, Ill., is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stewart of Council Bluffs.

Miss Inez Mangan and Miss Goldie Johnson left Thursday for a two months' visit at Minneapolis and the northern lakes' country. They expect to return about Stember 1.

Mrs. Jack Barber, who has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Frank Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton for a few days, has returned to her home in Arizona.

June Weddings

OUT-OF-TOWN friends in great number, especially from Des Moines, will grace the wedding of Miss Hannah Kulakofsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kulakofsky, and Rabbi Herman Cohen of the Iowa capital. The ceremony will take place Sunday at 6:30 p. m. in the Henshaw hotel, the marriage lines to be read by Rabbi Morris Taxon under a canopy of velvet, intertwined with smilax and yellow coriopsis. Miss Eudice Kulakofsky will play the wedding march.

Miss Rose Robinson of Des Moines, maid of honor, and Mrs. J. Harry Kulakofsky, with little Ruth Kulakofsky of Sioux City as ring bearer will be the bride's only attendants. Louis Kulakofsky, the bride's brother, will be best man.

Following the wedding the young couple will leave on a western tour, after which they will be at home in Des Moines.

For the guests who remain, Mrs. Harry Kulakofsky will entertain at the Blackstone Monday, and Mrs. Herman Marowitz at the same place Tuesday.

Pratt-Lathrop.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Lathrop of Wilmington, N. C., to Arthur B. Pratt, formerly of Omaha, was solemnized Thursday at the home of the bride's mother in Wilmington. After two weeks spent in the Cumberland mountains of Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt will be at home in Fred-eric, Ill.

Lee-Everett.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Everett, to James P. Lee, son of Mrs. Mary Lee and the late Michael Lee, was solemnized last Monday, Rev. Father Gannon officiating.

The bride wore a white georgette gown and a corsage of white roses and ferns. George Lee, brother of the bridegroom, was the only attendant.

After a western wedding trip the young couple will be at home with the bride's parents.

Kipling-Kieburg.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ruth Dorothy Kieburg to Boone H. Kipling, which took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kieburg. Rev. O. D. Baltzy performed the ceremony.

Miss Elna Nielsen attended the bride and Mr. Ernest Fleburg was best man. Following a wedding supper the young couple left for a short wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Kipling will be at home after July 15 at 223 Locust street.

REALLY, these are wondrous days and breathless ones, don't you think? With every June day filled to the brim with weddings, our heads are a whirl of tulle veils, wedding cake and white satin ribbons. This one takes her vows in the morning when the sun is just peeping over the hill and every pink rose is drenched with dew, the other one chooses the late afternoon at her father's house, when you just drop in as you would for a cup of tea, and still another has a stately evening ceremony with everyone in white gloves, the bride herself a vision of loveliness in her trailing white satin, a cunning little flower girl scattering petals in her path and a dainty pink and blue bridesmaid smiling at you over her armful of roses.

Then there are so many lovely girls announcing their engagements, and the wedding. Oh, not until after the war, but one never can tell, for these girls have a habit of changing their minds and very often they steal a march on their friends.

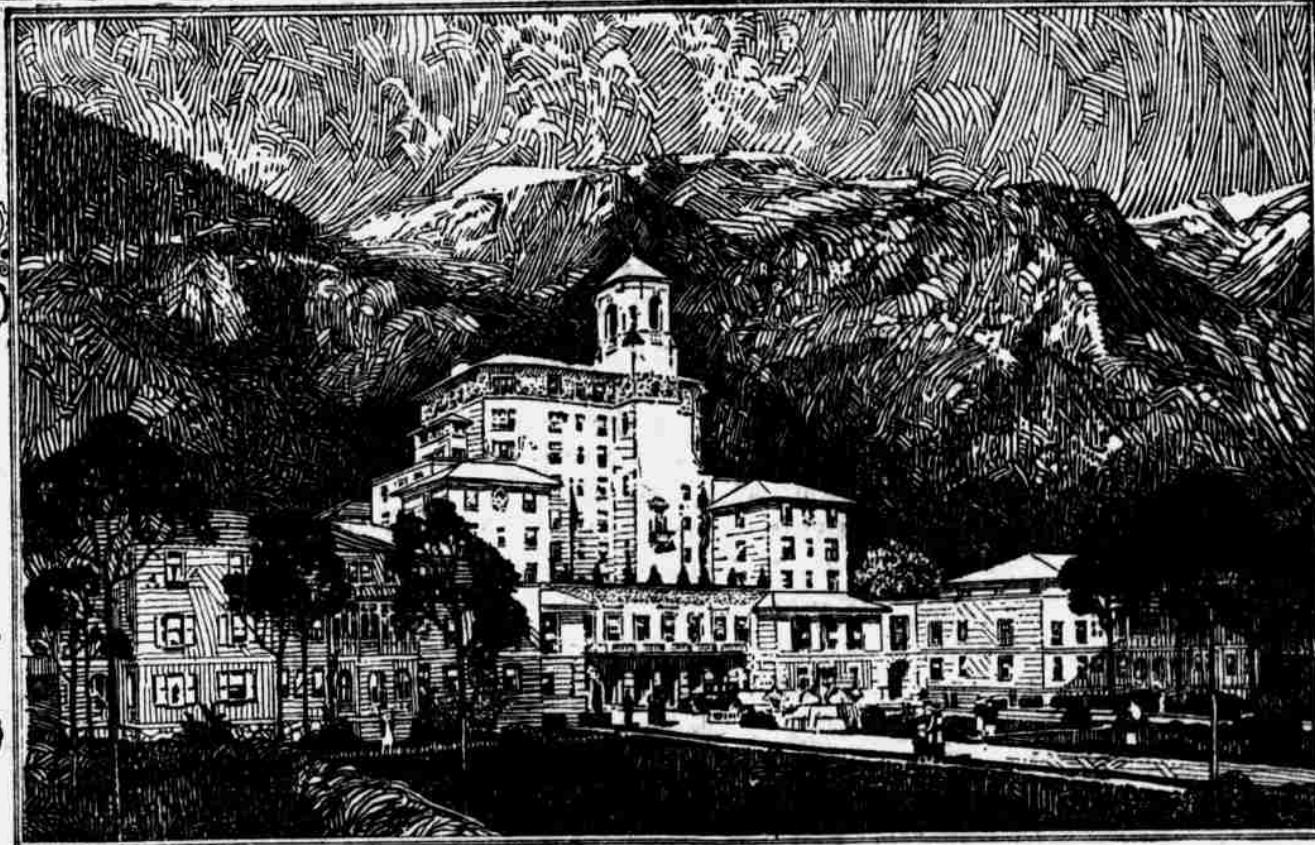

We have one of these interesting announcements today, for Mrs. J. B. Porter announces the engagement of her daughter, Gertrude, to Robert Burr Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Edwards. The wedding plans are indefinite, as Mr. Edwards has enlisted in the naval reserve flying corps and expects soon to be called.

Miss Porter is one of the most attractive girls of the younger set and the announcement of her engagement does not come as a complete surprise to her friends. She attended Central High school, later studying at Miss Mason's school at Tarrytown, Glenside, Hudson. For the past year Miss Porter has been specializing in kindergarten work at the Elizabeth Harrison school in Chicago. She expects to return in the fall to complete her course.

Mr. Edwards is a graduate of the Central High school and has just completed his junior year at Cornell university. He is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

Runaway Bride.

But to go back to the brides, you know we spoke of these runaway ones. It's so easy to pin a few posies on your jacket, hop into a big car, taking the bridegroom along of course, motor to some nearby town and before you can wink, Rev. So-and-So has tied the knot. Mrs. Glenn H. Fritz is one of those surprise brides, her wedding day being May
