

Former Omaha Boy Is Meeting Notables In His Work "Over There"

Lt. Richard E. Loyd, who passed his boyhood in Omaha and Tekamah, is having great experiences and is meeting the notables of France, "over there."

in Omaha, the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. A. Shaler, 4114 North Nineteenth street. She received the following letter from her son: "I am way down here on the south-east coast of France, very near to Spain and not far south of Bordeaux. It is near a seaside resort, Arachon, which you can find with ease on any map. It is a French school for the pilot de chasse, before we go to the front, and we have been sent here because our own school, as yet, has not been opened. "I have made some very good friends among the French officers, as we eat at their mess, Saturday night one of them took me to dinner in town at the Marquise d' O'ley. "At the salon I had the pleasure of meeting the Countess d' Lesseps, whose father tried to build the Panama canal." Lieutenant Loyd, when he lived here as a boy, was a great admirer of The Bee, and after school hours would visit the office, and in his boyish way, would help get out the paper. Looking for work? Nemaha County Picnic Arrangements Complete A meeting of all committees on the Omaha Nemaha county association which will hold a picnic at Elmwood park, Saturday, August 10, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Dykstra, 803 North Forty-third street, Thursday evening. A committee of arrangements and program for the picnic was named and will consist of Miss Helen Hitt, Mrs. Pete Dykstra, Mrs. Ed Lowman, Mrs. Dollie Winkelman, Mrs. Hal

Rainey, Mrs. J. D. Rainey, Mrs. R. J. Bourne and Mrs. C. M. Buck
From present prospects the picnic will have an attendance of at least 500, independent of invited guests from Nemaha county, who may be present. It will be an old fashioned picnic to which every person in Omaha, Douglas county and Council Bluffs, who formerly lived in Nemaha county, Nebraska, are invited. Basket lunches will be brought by those who attend and if coffee is served all persons must bring their own sugar. Picnic lemonade will be noticeable by its absence, due to the necessity of conserving sugar. This is the only disappointing feature of the picnic, for the kiddies, now discernable.
