R. Kulakofsky, 2202 Fowler street, reported his automobile stolen Saturday night from in front of the Y. M. C. A. building. It was found Sunday morning abandoned at Eightcenth and Wirt streets by Detectives Graham and Murphy.

The machines recovered by Detectives Rich and Anderson were those belonging to Mrs. Marie Hartell, 1909 Capitol avenue, and Peter Chudacoff, grocer, 401 North Thirtieth street, Both were found Sunday.

Despite the fact that both front fenders were bent and the glass in both parts of the windshield broken, the automobile of Edward Kosiski, 4023 Twenty-ninth street, still looked good c...ugh to the thief who ap-propriated it. It was taken from the parking stand at Lakeview park Saturday night,

The automobile of George Frank, Herman, Neb., was stolen Sunday evening from Fifty-fourth and Maple streets, and the machine of H. J. Cook, 1123 North Thirty-fourth street, from Twenty-fourth and Davenport at 11 p. m. Sunday.

Lieutenant Jackson, battalion sniping officer, was walking down the trench when he heard a sudden rattle of musketry-German bullets striking one of the British sniping plates One of his sniping posts was being battered by German armor-viercing bullets.

The officer hurried to the scene and with his periscope located the pot where the Germans were firing. was a big post on some ground behind the enemy firing line, hidden with earth and looking exactly like any one of the other tangled huna mocks with which shells and mines had strewn the vicinity. But his trained eye quickly marked out four small apertures which he knew to be loopholes. The excellence of the 'Can you preach?' he was asked periscope even enabled him to see the puffs of unburned powder which came from the four hostile rifles at
