

Turtle Doves, Rabbits and Honey Exhibit Shown Beside Prize Egg Laying Hens.

window. They stole three quarts of whisky and 12 quarts of cordials and were leaving when Mr. Bruce turned on the lights and peered out of a window on the second floor. Six dainty, ring-neck turtle doves, the first ever exhibited at a poultry The men in the car shouted at him and fired several shots as the show, may be seen at the sixth ancar sped away. Mr. Bruce was not nual exhibit of the Omaha Poultry struck by the bullets, one of which association in the Auditorium. They are aristocratic little birds, and broke the window. The others glance somewhat disdainfully at the struck the side of the house. world through the wire sides of their cage, but they coo just like ordinary of the Nebraska Rabbit Breeders' asturtle doves at times, in spite of the sociation, which is holding its third fact that they were imported from annual show at the auditorium in conjunction with the poultry show. Europe

But of all the attractions of the There are rabbits from Australia, New Zealand, South America, China, Belgium and Mexico. Both rabbits and chickens are beshow four ordinary hens, with an ability to lay the most eggs, are the greatest. They are entered in the "utility class," and each has a record ing examined by the experts and for laying more than 200 ggs a prizes will be awarded before the end of the week, when the show closes. Admission is free. There is "something different"

about the honey lemonade served by J. W. Snodderley, who has charge of the booth established by the Douglas County Honey Producers' association. At least there is always a crowd waiting for more.

Rabbits with pink eys, with green eyes, and with hazel eyes; rabbits as large as dogs, and as small as rats, habbits of every color and de-scription, are included in the exhibit

MATTER of a sheath of woven moonlight; a scintillating bodice held by a fragile shoulder strap, a wisp of ostrich, a thread of rib

THE BEE: OMAHA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1919.

olley at Man Who Finds Them at Work Former Omaha Girl, Now Bernadine Sister, | To Sell Milk in Omaha Back From the Front

Sister Marie Yvonne, formerly

Mysterious Disappearance of in an interview yesterday told many of the harrowing experiences she Young Woman From Council Bluffs Kept Po-November 7.

been, declared.

(Continued From Page One.)

aking parlors this morning.

Miss Genevieve Davis, for whom he police in all of the midwest cities were looking, following her mysterious disappearance October 2, and who voluntarially returned to her home in Council Bluffs three weeks ater, was united in marriage yesterday ofternoon by Justice of the Peace G. G. Baird, to Odus Bank-ford. Omaha young man. He gave his age as 22 years, but declined to make any further statements. Miss Davis gave her age as lice Busy.

Identifies Body of Slain The license was issued with the consent of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Davis, 111 North Eigth street, Council Bluffs. They refused to make any comment on the marraige or give out any information concerning their new son-in-law. mother in Council Bluffs and that The young man was equally rethe woman declared she would view ticent, admitting only his name and that he lived in Omaha. He declined to say how long he had known Miss the body this morning. Miss Miller also said she would call at the under-

Sherman Ave. Lines Davis. The name of Odus Bankford does not appear in the Omaha city di-The Deer Park Improvement rectory. lub held its reorganization meeting

Monday evening at the Vinton Operators Agree With treet school, Twenty-second and inton streets. Rev. J. F. Hawk acted as temporary chairman. The following officers were elect-cd: President, A. W. Jones; vice president, Rev. J. F. Hawk; treasrer, William G. Bromer; secretary, took place. Gallatin.

Volley at Man Who

entrance to his cellar by breaking a

A committee was appointed to call on the officials of the street railway company in an effort to secure better street car service during the rush hours in the morning and evening on the South Omaha and Shernan avenue lines.

Want More Cars on

South Omaha and

A special meeting has been called for Monday evening at 8 at the Vinton school, at which Commissioner that as Mr. McAdoo was 'ignorant" Butler and Mr. Morton of the city of conditions in 1918 and 1919, his planning board will be present.

Tiaga ,Siberia, Nov. 25 .- Eight housand wives and children of agree to it. fficers making an eleventh-hour flight from Omsk are reported to have been captured by the bolshe-viki 10 miles east of Omsk. The reviki 10 miles east of Onisa. of the treat of the rearmost units of the Siberian army from the All-Russian capitol became a stampede, the by the railroad administration. In troops throwing away their guns and commandeering locomoitves, trains and carts in which to escape. Fifteen carrying officers and their tinues to diminish.

families, besides scores of other trains filled with refugees, ammuni- Says Treaty Certain to. tion and merchandise, which were blocked by wreckage and lack of motor power, fell into the hands of of the night at the undertaking par-lors. He was registered at the Hen-(Continued From Page One.) the session, but declined to say what shaw hotel. He left the hotel at 11:30 o'clock and told the night clerk he was going to Council Bluffs for two hours. At 2 o'clock this morn-Before the meeting Attorey General Palmer said that if the figures ing he had not returned.

M. F. Rohrer, 639 Vine street, with ditions in 1917 were abnormal," but whom the woman lived in Council Bluffs, that she was modest in her bearing and gentle in manner.

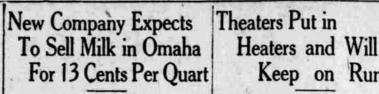

in the Council Bluffs federal building also declared the woman was well behaved, attractive and choice in the not leave Omaha until the mystery

Another inquest will be held at he Gentleman mortuary this aftersoon in an effort to throw further light on the Calhoun murder mys-Special Investigator Dempsey tery. was in Calhoun yesterday getting witnesses.

Detectives found a woman's black velvet toque hat in a downtown garage yesterday morning. It was

Have Many Reservations taken to the Gentleman undertaking establishment, and after the dead 316 S. 18th St. Douglas 3808. James H. Ingersoll of Pocatello: woman's hair was dressed, the hat

John Frazeur, manager of the Miss Mary Malone of Omaha, who Omaha branch of the Midwest Milk just returned to the Bernadine con- Producers' association, yesteday anvent at Nebraska City after spend- nounced that his company expects ng six years in war-ridden Belgium, to start January 1 to sell milk here at a price of 13 cents a quart. The company is equipping a pas-teurizing and bottling plant at Twentieth street and Poppleton was forced to undergo while under German shell fire and vividly described the retreat of the Germans avenue, and expects to have a daily capacity of 5,000 gallons. Mr. Frfazeur is arranging to use the city fire houses as distributing The Belgians have named November 7 "Notre Deliverance," meaning "our deliverance," she said, and that stations. day is a greater day to the Belgians "The actual price at which we will

"The actual price at which we will be able to sell milk will depend up-on the extent to which the people will co-operate," Mr. Frazeur said. "The more milk we sell, the lower the price will be, and I anticipate that we will be able to start off at than Armistice day. Sister Marie Yvonne told of living in a cellar of the Bernadine convent at Andregnies, Belgium, for three days, with little to eat, while the German and English artillery dropped high exblosive shells in the near vicinity.

that we will be able to start off at a price of 13 cents per quart." Milk is sold in Omaha from 16 to 17 cents per quart. The Midwest company will buy steam and refriger-ation from the Metropoitan Water pumping station at Twentieth street Sister Marie Yvonne went to Bel-gium in 1913, shortly after war had and Poppleton avenue. Mr. Frazeur Woman as His Wife stated that he believed his company will be able to make a price of 10 cents a quart after a while. Rotarians Enjoy Turkey

Dinner at University Club Omaha Rotarians enjoyed a big turkey dinner at the University club last night. A large attendance marked the affair. Lester Heyne Despite Wright's positive identifi-ation of his wife's body, later he is known to have mailed a letter to and several other members of the Miss Hope Scoville, Council Bluffs. organization gave short talks. The letter was dropped in a mail box in Council Bluffs and last night

Turkey Day

Come! Come, wifie!

Why tackle the job you dread? We'll have turkey gobbler and cranberry Bright and red; pickled We'll have some peaches, Mince pie and plum pudding, too, And lots of other goodies Just meant for me and you

I've made our reservation Down at the Pierce Cafe, And a dollar and half a plate, dear.

Is all we'll have to pay. We couldn't get it at home, dear. For triple that, I'll ween,

So three cheers for turkey day We're off for the Hotel Keen.

Dinner Hours: 12:30 to 2:30-5:30 to 7:30. Mrs. M. S. Pierce, Prop.

The coal shortage and proposed sbutting down of industries in Omaha as a result of the coal short-most of them have installed oxyo- and shutting off the flow of gas gas heaters and will keep on run- should the flame be blown out.

ning. A large number were installed Chamber Favors Union in the Strand and tried out last night, proving a great success. The Rialto also installed some of the machines, as did LeMarquand and Keep on Running Ledoux at the Empress. They will keep the playhouses as warm as nec- adopted a resolution favoring proessary for the comfort of theater-

Of Omaha and County The executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday visions in the new state constitution, or the elimination of restrictions that Above the flame of a new gas now exist, thus making it possible age will not affect the theaters, as light fixture is a turbine that is to consolidate the city of Omaha whirled by the heated air, stopping with Douglas county and providing a means of adjusting debts between the city and the county.

goers.

The Finest of 'Kerchiefs

And such a vast array of them. As a gift for one of those people you "haven't the least idea what to give," a hankerchief, in any degree of embroidered or lace trimmed daintiness offers itself.

¶ Pure linen ones, hemstitched by hand-are priced all the way from 35c hand — are · priced from 25c to 75c to $15 each. each ¶ Beautiful Madei-

¶ And some very ra and Spanish emfine, sheer Irish linbroidered affairs come at all prices. en, hand hemstitched ones-are $1 and $1.25 each. ¶ Then, pure linens, with corner designs or borders all embroidered by

And sheer squares of linen bordered by real Duchess and Rose point lace are marvelously dainty.

The Proper Hose for real children

The sort who "simply will wear them out at the knees" are to be had here, in all sizes and quite a wide range of prices. ¶ Fine ribbed lisle hose in white, black, brown and cordovan, with triple knees, heels and toes-are 65c in the small sizes, in the large, 75c a pair. ¶ Misses' silk plait-ed hose, fine ribbed Boys' heavy ribbed hose, with triple knees, heels and -come in black or white, small sizes, $1.50; larger sizes, small sizes, larger sizes, toes, 65c. $1.75 a pair. 75c a pair. ¶ Misses' silk lisle hose in black or ¶ Misses' pure thread silk hose, white, with double fine ribbed - come knees and solesin black, white, pink are 75c in small sizes, 85c in the larger. and light blue for $2.50 a pair.

Comfy Slippers must be on your list We are showing a

If you make a mistake In Your Corset

If you are wearing the wrong one-one which is not suited to your particular needs-you may have cause to regret it. No other article of wearing apparel so definitely influences a woman's general health as does her corset.

If there is the least discomfort from your present corset-if it is a strain and not a relief to wear it, we sincerely advise - remained uncalled for in lock box 13, where the woman is said to have Garfield's Principles where the woman got all of her mail. Mr. Wright spent the early part as to operators' profits given yes-terday by Mr. McAdoo were correct At the St. Marys avenue house it was said that the woman was ladyit was not likely Dr. Garheld would like in manner, refined in her tastes permit an increased price for coal. and gave every evidence of good breeding. It was also said by Mrs. In a statement bearing on this issue the operators said "that con-message "carries no weight and re-quires no answer." The operators Miss Miller, who is a stenographer said they welcomed an investigation of current tax returns and that selection of her friends. Mr. Wright asserted that he would tion, but that the miners refused to surrounding his wife's death was With less than 40 per cent of the normal output of bituminous coal solved. Inquest to Be Held Today. being produced, the nation is facing its most serious period since the

