HELP WANTED-MALE.

CHANTS NOW!

If you are one of the many who pulled down a good invome until a few months ago, and are looking for a chance to get into a line where men are earning from $500 to $1,500 a month RIGHT NOW, we have just this kind of an opportunity. Many came to use when other propositions began to slip, and have maintained a splendid average. This remarkable sales connection has gone through many adverse conditions which hit other lines and we would like to show you what some of our men have been paid so far this year—it is actually astonishing. Our proposition sells to the merchant when nothing clae is sold him: it makes him a great big new found profit when everything else slumps. It is just what he wants and if you are a hustler you can sell for us whether you have ever sold before or not. Unleas you are ambitious to get ahead, don't waste your time and ours investigating us. If we accept you we will train you and pay commissions on everything sold in your territory whether you sell it or not. Nearly one-half our sales are made on leads. Present sales force numbers close to 200. We want six or eight on leads. Present sales force numbers close to 200. We want six or cight good high-grade men to call at the Ho tel Fontenelle. Thursday between 9 and 4 and sak for Mr. Allen, who will ex-plain this proposition. Out-of-town ap-plicants, write.

Romance in Origin Of Superstitions

By H. IRVING KING.

Divining by the Moon. In different sections of the United States and Canada young maidens who have arrived at that age at which they begin to be curious about their matrimonial prospects are accustomed, when they first see the new moon, to repeat:

New moon, true moon, tell unto me Who my true love is to be. The color of his hair, the clothes he is to wear And when he'll be married to me This invocation should be repeated while holding some article in the hand—a handkerchief, any article will do—and the article so held should be placed under the maiden's pillow when she goes to bed. Then will she see in a dream her future husband. This is, of course, merely a survival of moon worship; an ap-peal to the goddess when she is represented in her most potent, or at least most popular, form as a crescent in the sky. The mystic beams of the crescent moon falling upon the article held in the hand of her worshipper impart to it some of the magic power of the goddess-the article is, as it were, an offering made to the moon-goddess, touched by her ing thus "charged" by the essence of the divinity retains, during the night. 5-R. strictly mod and garage. $1,000 down, price $5.000, $40 me.
