

Medical College Dean Speaks at Kiwanis Meeting

Outline of Growth of University of Nebraska and Hospital Outlined by Dean Irving S. Cutter.

Regular weekly meetings of the Kiwanis club were resumed at the Rome hotel at noon Friday when Dean Irving S. Cutter, head of the University of Nebraska college of medicine and hospital, spoke before the members of the club.

Dean Cutter outlined the activities of the state university and the college of medicine in all their ramifications. Since its establishment in Omaha 40 years ago today, the college and hospital have more than doubled their capacities and the valuation placed on the land and equipment is close to $1,000,000.

The applications from young men wishing to enter the freshman class at the college this year number 135. Only 90 men will be admitted. This is remarkable in that six years ago the entire enrollment of the college was only 68.

The club members voted to accept Dean Cutter's invitation to visit the college and hospital in the near future for a noonday luncheon and a tour of the college and hospital.

L. D. Ladd has been appointed secretary to succeed Walter Rose, who has resigned. The Kiwanis orchestra has been increased to 10 men. There were 114 members at the opening meeting.

Street Projects May Be Called Off

Wholesale Protests and Opinion of Legal Department Influences Council.

Six big public improvement projects of the city council will probably be called off, the prospect is.

Wholesale protests from property owners that the burden of taxation would be too great, together with an opinion of the city legal department that special assessments would have to be paid by property owners within 50 days, will bring about the defeat of the projects, commissioners indicate.

Several of the commissioners would favor the projects if the assessment payments could be spread over a period of 10 years. The decision will be announced September 12.

Omaha Lawyers Favor Criticism of Landis By Bar Association

Omaha judges and lawyers back the American Bar association in its condemnation of Judge K. M. Landis for accepting a $32,000 base ball commissionership, while occupying the federal post.

He should have resigned before accepting the base ball job, said County Judge Crawford.

Many would have been tempted to adopt Landis' course, observed Judge Sears with a smile.

Judge Troup, Judge Fitzgerald and County Attorney Shotwell were among those who favored the bar association's protest.

Alleged Postoffice Robber Identified By Postal Inspector

Besides "blowing" the postoffice at Hamlin, Kan., Wednesday night, W. J. Welch is one of a trio who robbed a garage at Emerson, the same night, according to Emmett O. Hallock, postal inspector of the Kansas City district.

He arrived yesterday to identify Welch, who was arrested by Policeman Crawford of the South Side, following an auto collision in front of the officer's home, Thursday morning as Welch was driving into Omaha.

A master key, made out of a silver teaspoon, is part of Welch's "equipment."

Northern Lights Bisping, Neb., Sept. 2.—(Special Telegram)—Northern lights brightly illuminated the sky Thursday night and attracted considerable attention in this vicinity.

AT THE THEATERS

At 7:30 this afternoon the big "Whirl of Gaiety Co." Emil Hofmann's Harmonium and all the rest of the house staff at the Gaiety will get the signal "Go!" and the season of musical burlesque for 1921-22 will be on. Advance sales for today's opening performance indicate the public's hunger for the Gaiety's music; that it will be kept at the same high pitch is a matter entirely up to the 24 musical shows booked for the current season. As usual, the Sunday matinee will start at 2.

Terminating performance, matinee and evening will be given today, the extremely entertaining Orpheum show which is headed by two headliners. One of these is presented by Williams and Wolf, and the other by Tempest and Sunshine. The curtain rises tonight at 7 o'clock. Opening with the matinee tomorrow comes Charles Lewis in "On Fifth Avenue." This is an elaborate girl revue in six scenes. There are to be two head acts. The one to be presented by George Yeoman and Lizzie is called "Editor of the Amusement Press." Except from musical comedy, as presented by Frank De Vos and Harry Horford, will be the other chief feature. The new bill is to have four other select Orpheum acts.

The famous Georgia Minstrels will make a very attractive street parade introducing several novelties, and give a free hand concert in front of the theater. We all know how it feels to hear the minstrel band and hear those trombones start "Jazz" music. The company "The Hot Spot" will be the first to start tomorrow.

A wonderful exhibition of animal intelligence is presented by Rhoda Royal's Elephants for the last times today. A musical number which rejuvenates one is that offered by Rhinehart and Duff, two dainty beauties who present a vocal sketch that is unusually effective. Exceedingly versatile are John and Ella Burns, whose varied accomplishments include singing, dancing and juggling.

Where It Started
Italics, or letters Roman in style but sloping to the right, were designed in 1500 by Aldus, a Venetian printer. He decorated this style of lettering to the Italian states, hence the name. The first book printed in italics is a copy of Virgil, printed at Venice by Aldus, 1501. Their use to emphasize words or sentences came at a later date.

Bids Received On Extension Of Ames Paving

Seven Contractors Seek County Work—Engineering Department to Examine Offers.

Seven bids on approximately three-quarters of a mile of proposed brick paving, extending from the city limits to Fifty-second street on Ames avenue, were received yesterday by the board of county commissioners.

The bidders were John Beebe, Baur & Johnson, American Paving Company, Allied Contractors, J. J. Parks, National Construction Company and the Murphy Construction Company. They were turned over to the county engineering department, which will figure which are the lowest.

County Commissioner O'Connor said he believed the bids were "good." Contractors' estimates averaged 75 cents per square yard, according to Mr. O'Connor. The street to be paved will be 10 feet wide, and probably will cost the county about $30,000, which will be paid from the inheritance tax fund of the county court, Mr. O'Connor said.

Gives Self Up To Go to Prison

Cabaret Owner Goes to County Jail When Case is Lost in High Court.

Frank (Bake) Sellers, proprietor of a cabaret in East Omaha, volunteered to go to the penitentiary yesterday when Detectives Trapp and Munch accosted him at Sixteenth and Davenport streets.

Sellers had been convicted in district court and sentenced two years ago to prison for the alleged theft of an automobile. He appealed the case and was released on bond pending the decision of the supreme court. The higher court confirmed sentence and an S. O. S. call was sent out for Sellers' arrest.

"You'd better beat it to Sheriff Clark's office," advised Detective Trapp when he met Sellers. "All right, I'll go up now," replied Sellers. The detectives walked part way with Sellers, but allowed him to continue alone when within four blocks of the court house. Sellers reported amicably to the sheriff and will be on his way to Lincoln by next Wednesday.
