With one victory to its credit in the fight for the city Class B championship, the Woodmen of the World Headquarters teams, champs of the Greater Omaha loop and Saturday Class B winners, is determined to settle the championship honors for the 1921 season, when it clashes Sunday with the K. of C. Columbias. Saturday the Headquarters will clash in the second game for the Saturday Class B trophy with the First M. E. Methodists, league winners of the Church loop. The Council Bluffs All-Stars probably will play the Drive-It-Yourselfs, local Class A city champions Sunday, it was announced by of-ficials of the Municipal Aunteur Base Ball association. These gamer will all be played at Fort Omaha.

Fred Krajecik, second baseman who has taken the mound severa times this season, will be in the box for the Woodmen of the World team Saturday' against the Church leaguers, and will be opposed by Lawrence Custer, the pitching ace of the Church loop. Frank Me-Grath or Eddy McDermott will hurl for the Woodmen Sunday, while "Smiling" Clarence Smith will of-. ficiate for the Columbias.
