Corpse, Doubled Up and Bound by Cord, Found Beneath Garage in Rear of Suspect's Home.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—The body of a man, found buried under the garage of the home of Harvey W. Church, was positively identified this afternoon as that of Carl Asmus, automobile salesman, who has been missing for two days. Church is being returned to Chicago today from Adams, Wis., where he was arrested in connection with the finding of the body of Bernard J. Daugherty, Asmus' fellow salesman, yesterday.

The inquest into Daugherty's death was indefinitely continued this morning after brief testimony.

Folks Identify Body.

Before Asmus' body was found, buried under two feet of earth, River Forest and Maywood police had conducted a thorough search of the river where Daugherty's body, manacled and mutilated, was found.

The body lay on its left side, the wrist bound to the ankles, with the knees against the chest.

The identification was made by Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. Asmus, parents of the dead man, who came here from Bloomington, Ill., last night.

Harvey W. Church, 20 years old, who bought an automobile from Daugherty for $5,400, was in custody and enroute back to Chicago from Adams, Wis., today to be questioned by the police. In the basement of his home the police found two letters bearing the initials of the automobile salesman and a base ball bat and a hatchet all stained red.

Suspect Denies Crime.

With Church when he was arrested was his white-haired mother. He declared he had no knowledge of how Daugherty met his death and said he knew nothing of Asmus. He insisted he had paid Daugherty $5,400 for the automobile.

Daugherty, a graduate of Harvard university and a former resident of St. Paul, came to Chicago a short time ago from Philadelphia. Asmus' home was in Bloomington, Ill. Both were former service men and Daugherty was said to have held a captain's commission in the tank corps.

Much Evidence Found.

Church, formerly a railroad brakeman, appeared at the sales agency Thursday morning and said he wanted to purchase a car for his father, who resides at Eagle River, Wis. He arranged for delivery that afternoon and said he would have a certified check for $5,400 ready at that time at a west side bank.

The salesman departed with the machine as arranged, for and it was not until Friday that any trace of them was obtained. That was when the body of Daugherty was found in the river.

Detectives then learned of the automobile purchase by Church and went to his home. The discovery of the stained hats, bat and hatchet in the basement followed. From neighbors it was learned that Church had taken his mother for a trip into Wisconsin and authorities in that state were asked to arrest him.

F. H. Drake Must Pay Wife $100 Month

District Judge Fitzgerald yesterday ordered Frank H. Drake, real estate man, to pay his wife, Lola, $100 a month pending final decision on her suit for separation, filed last Wednesday.

Drake, whose offices are at 711 Brandeis theater building, declared in court that he had had "a very bad year." But Mrs. Drake, who is an expert accountant, had obtained access to his books and proved to the court that his net earnings during the first half of this year were at least $2,000.

The Drakes have been married 20 years. Mrs. Drake named Mrs. Nellie Harris in her suit for separation and also sued Mrs. Harris for $10,000 for alleged alienation of Drake's affections.

Embargo on Brazilian Live Stock Still Holds

The Argentine embargo on live stock from Brazil, due to the prevalence of rinderpest in the latter country, is still in effect and is being rigidly enforced, reports the American agricultural commissioner at Buenos Aires. Uruguay also maintains an embargo against Brazilian live stock. American shippers of live stock should keep these embargoes in mind and forward any shipments to South America on boats which will not touch at any Brazilian port.

Man Convicted on Charge Sending Dynamite to Omaha

Deadwood, S. D., Sept. 9.—Camilo Cacci was convicted here Friday of shipping dynamite in violation of law. He was arrested last October, charged with transporting dynamite to an accomplice in Omaha. Evidence presented showed the explosive had been stolen from a mining company. It was shipped in unmarked boxes by express, it was testified.

Commission Finds Grain Rates at Long Pine Too High

Washington, Sept. 10.—(Special Telegram.)—On the complaint of the Walrath & Sherwood Lumber company of Omaha against the Chicago & Northwestern railroad of the rates on corn in carloads from Long Pine and Eli to Fort Collins, Colo., the Interstate Commerce commission found it to be unreasonable and ordered reparation of $1,524.
