Saturday—Introducing the
Marvel Hat
Never More 6.85 Never Less

We have named it the Marvel because it is the Marvel in value and in fashion. No other such value can be had at this price. While for some months the high standard that warranted the name could not be maintained at 6.85—the figure was higher—but now we welcome it at its old original price.

This selection of Marvel hats include beautiful black hats with touches of ostrich and jet, new reds and new purples, in fact, all the new colors are here. In design they embody all the new ideas suggested by the autumn fashion—they are a direct reflection of models now selling in many cases at double the price. Selection from this fine showing 6.85 may be had on Saturday at
