Defeats Gardner In Finals Played At St. Louis

Chicago Golfer Loses Hold On Championship, 7 and 6, Before Large Gallery.

By JOE DAVIS.

Chicago Tribune-Omaha See Leased Wire, St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 24.--Jesse Guilford of the Woodland club of Boston, the Massachusetts champion, gained the greatest honors of his career today by winning the national amateur championship from Bob Gardner of Chicago, 7 to 6, at the Sunset Hill Country chib.

Expectations of a thrilling duel to the end of the round were dissipated when Guilford by a display of great putting, and aided by some wild play by Gardner after passing the eighth hole, secured a lead of six up in the morning. The only hope then was for Gardner to regain his normal form and for Guilford to lose some of the magic of his putter, and al-though the Chicagoan succeeded in reducing the lead against him to four holes at the fourth hole in the afternoon, the Bostonian performed the remarkable feat of getting four birdies in a row. Gardner's deficit swelled from four to seven down at the ninth hole, and the match finshed on the twelfth green.

Won New Hampshire Title. Guilford, who is 26 years of age, won the championship of New Hampshire when he was 14 and since then his successes have been in winning the open and amateur championships of Massachusetts.

His road to the final was through victories over George Von Flm of Salt Lake City, 5 and 4; Dewey Weber of Chicago, 3 and 2; H. R. Johnston of St. Paul, 1 up; "Chick' Evans, 6 and 5, and Gardner, 7 and

Gardner won from Clark Spiers of Scattle 1 up. Tom Armour of Scotland, 4 and 3; Rudy Knepper of Sioux City, 4 and 2; Willie Hunter, the British champion, 5 and 4. Guilford's putting when the strain of the match is considered was probably the best of the tournament, while the usually reliable Gardner was far below normal, and he missed enough putts to make his margin of defeat twice as big. Guilford's victory, however, was well deserved and was a source of satisfaction to the Boston contingent as it atoned for "Chick" Evans defeat of Francis Quimet by a similar margin last year at Roslyn, Long Island. Gardner Irons not Accurate. advantage, but after Jesse had estab lished a good lead in the afternoon he loosened up and it was a fine duel' between these giant hitters. Gardner's irons for the green were not as accurate as usual, while in the chip shots and long range putting he fell below the wonderfully fine play of the Bostonian. The cards:
