Klux Chief Live Stock Problem in Given Title In Omaha

Wizard Simmons Used to Be Colonel in W. O. W., Sovereign Clerk Here Reveals.

How did William Joseph Simimperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, acquire the title of "colonel" with which he decorates his name in the printed propaganda so profusely distributed from the

Not a Colonel.

But this is not all. Inquiries made at the headquarters of the Wood-men of the World in Omaha brought out that the imperial wizard is no longer a "colonel," hasn't been, in fact, for four years despite the fact title to his signature on every possible occasion.

To a reporter for The Bee, John T. Yates, sovereign clerk of the Woodmen of the World, told of Sim-in our order. Simmons ceased to be a Woodmen of the World colonel before he began the Klan organization work, Yates said. Simmons' only connec-tion with the Omaha lodge now is that he still keeps up his insurance, Mr. Yates said,

"We never considered Simmons a very strong man," Mr. Yates told reporters for The Bee, "but perhaps we were wrong. He had an idea and profited by it, apparently. His klan of our organization. We couldn't anyway, unless he was convicted of a felony."

The following letter from F. E. Maxey, principal organizer for the Ku Klux Klan in Omaha, was received by The Bee yesterday:
"Under the caption, 'Labor Head Raps Ku Klux Klan,' there appears a statement that Tony Donahoe, president of the Central Labor Maxey, and the caption of the Central Labor Nebraska, Colorado, North Dakota and South Dakota.

organization.
"Mr. Donahoe, as reported by The Mr. Donahoe has a perfect right to statement that labor is opposed to this organization he is evidently wiland some of whom are the most tion. While it is true that there are some extreme radicals in the labor movement that the principles of this organization do not appeal to, this is a class that would not under any circumstances be admitted to membership in the Ku Klux Klan. Mr. Donahoe is evidently not very familiar with the sentiments of organized labor even in his own city when he makes these statements through the columns of The Bee.

the rank and file of labor what ticket they shall vote or with what organization they shall affiliate. The writcr's acquaintance among members of organized labor, the rank and file as organizations, runs into the thousands; therefore, I claim to be in a position to know the sentiment of the members of organized labor

Before leaving Omaha yesterday Governor McKelvie answered a letter from Gov. N. E. Kendall of Iowa, approving proposed conference of governors to be held at Des Moines in the near future to discuss the freight rate situation, unemployment and other vital subjects which affect the prosperity of this section of the country. Columbus District. Elgin, Neb., Sept. 26 .- (Special.)-John Warner was instantly killed and Peter Baum seriously injured in an automobile accident a mile and a half south of town this morning. Warner and Baum are farmers residing a few miles southeast of Elgin.

The men were traveling west in an automobile at a crossing where the state highway is obscured from the south by trees.

The car collided with a large touring car owned by Dr. E. D. John-son of Grand Island. G. L. Harrison also of Grand Island, was driving the touring car.

The Grand Island parties were on fishing trip. The smaller automobile was thrown 30 feet and the touring car was swerved into a telephone post and fence. Both cars were demolished. Passengers in the touring car were not injured. Both men in the smaller automobile were thrown from the car and into the ditch, Warner dying before medical aid reached the scene. Antelope authorities are investigating the accident.

Former Nebraskan Favors Searching of Autos, But Says Private Residences Another Question.

Washington, Sept. 26.—William J. Bryan paid his respects to the sen-ate fillibuster against passage of the "The conference report on the beer found in the automobile in which the bill meets the situation," he said. The supporters of enforcement do not desire to make the laws any more strict than necessary to compel obedience. A private residence s a permanent building and it is for search. This might even be exsended to permit any bona fide resi- gan, wife of Morris Lonergan of dent to protect his home from Omaha, who is serving a 30-year
