

District Court Criminal Docket Unusually Heavy

Forty-Eight Prisoners In County Jail to Face Juries Of Peers On Serious Charges.

Forty-eight prisoners are awaiting trial in the county jail on charges ranging from first-degree murder to "insufficient funds." Aside from these there are 95 persons out on bond who are to be tried for various alleged felonies.

Among those awaiting trial for murder are: James A. Saxton, charged with the murder of Frank Foggy, in his drug store at 2802 Farnam street, July 20; John L. Lutz, negro, charged with the murder of C. R. Ruben, in his grocery store at 628 North Seventeenth street, March 26; Leo Brunson, for the alleged murder of Mrs. Margaret Hyland, at Tenth and Bancroft streets, June 4; Charles Marewitz, for the alleged shooting of John Brzozkowski, in a pool room on July 27, and Ollie Mortensen, who will be tried for the alleged shooting of Mrs. Grace Black, west of the Sarp Mills, July 23.

The 143 cases waiting the next term of court form one of the heaviest criminal dockets in the history of the county.

Tram Workers Await Decision on Appeal

Anson H. Bigelow, attorney for the street car men's union, said yesterday he had reached no decision regarding the action which the union might take should it decide to resist the 12 per cent wage cut announced by the street car company.

Mr. Bigelow admitted that should an appeal of the union, now pending in the supreme court, be decided favorably for the union, it would give the union a "moral" advantage.

Ask That Auto Visitors Be Exempt From Arrest

Recommendations that tourists in Omaha be supplied with buttons exempting them from arrest for violation of traffic rules and with maps of the city, similar to the hospitality shown tourists in Minneapolis, were made yesterday by the board of directors of the Omaha Automobile club, who met at the Rome hotel with Mayor Dahlman and Police Commissioner Dunn.

Recommendation that a large plot of ground, on one of the main highways, be secured by the city and made into a camping ground for tourists with Omaha police protection, was made by W. B. Check, chairman of the meeting.

Council Favors Ordinance For 24th Street Widening

City council, in committee of the whole, yesterday recommended for passage today an ordinance for the widening of Twenty-fourth street from Leavenworth street to St. Mary's avenue. The proposed ordinance calls for the appointment of a board of appraisal to assess damages for the abutting property.

The committee voted informally to support a resolution indorsing the fund raising campaign of Father Flanagan's home.

Salvation Army Home Will Observe 25th Anniversary

The 25th year of Salvation Army rescue home in Omaha will be observed in the middle of October. Adjutant Lillian Ness announced yesterday.

Celebration of the anniversary will be postponed until November, by which time the big new building on Sherman avenue, with accommodations for 50 girls, will be completed.

A campaign for funds will also be put on that month.

Dan Butler Calls Meeting Of Omaha Tenants' League

D. B. Butler, acting president of the Tenants' Protective league, announced that a general meeting of his organization will be called next week in the city council chamber.

"I wish to request that all members of the league whose rents recently have been increased to remain in their present locations and decline to pay the increased rents until after our general meeting," said Mr. Butler.

Legless Man Travels 1,500 Miles "By Hand"

Ed Mosler, 69, legless, arrived in Omaha yesterday after a 1,500-mile journey from Spokane, Wash., "by hand."

He pushed himself along the entire distance in a small wagon, such as boys use, by means of wooden blocks attached to his hands. He started from Spokane May 14, and says he beat his schedule a month.

He will remain in Omaha for the winter, after which he will "push on."

Nurse Mixes Babies But Mothers Untangle Hospital "Scramble"

By mistake a nurse in an Omaha maternity hospital "mixed" two boy babies belonging to different mothers, early Sunday morning.

The babies were brought from the nursery on the third floor to their supposed mothers on the floor below because it was time for breakfast. Mrs. Max Davis, Selma Terrace, looked at the identification tag on the wrist of the baby handed her. It didn't read "Davis." She called the nurse. By that time Mrs. David Epstein, Council Bluffs, also had discovered the mistake. The babies were finally exchanged.

The two mothers are cousins and close friends. Their babies were born within 12 hours of each other,

Common Law Wife Sues Rich Mate

Defendant Listens to Story in Judge Sears' Court With Bowed Head.

Edna Stuber, dark and pretty, took the witness stand in District Judge Sears' court Monday morning and recounted a story of a man's love for her, their common-law relations and his final tiring of her. The plaintiff seeks a decree of separate maintenance.

She alleged that she had gone through two illegal operations because Leo Stuber, wealthy real estate and live stock man of Omaha and Woodward, Ia., had asked her to do so "because he didn't want the disgrace" of a child being born to them.

Stuber, in company with his daughter, listened to the woman's story and bowed his head several times.

Mrs. Stuber declared that they had lived at 2617 Harney street and 508 South Twenty-ninth street. She said she had often asked Stuber to have a regular marriage ceremony performed but he had refused.

Court Orders Arrest Of 68 Persons Whose Bonds Are Held Illegal

District Judge L. B. Day yesterday ordered the summary arrest of 68 persons who are out on bond. Judge Day held their bonds illegal, having been signed with the name of the defendant "by his attorney," and with the name of the attorney. The judge stated that to be legal the defendant must sign the bond himself in court.

"Those who have appealed from police court have no recourse but to pay their fines or serve their sentences as they are required to file a legal bond within 24 hours after appealing from a decision in police court."

"These defendants have not filed a legal bond and it is now too late," the judge said when ordering the arrests.

Three Barneston Stores Robbed of About $1,000

Barneston, Neb., Sept. 26.—(Special Telegram.) Robbers entered two stores at Barneston and escaped with about $400 in cash and goods. At C. A. Rabb's restaurant they secured $35 in cash, cigars and cigars. At the Farmers' union store $35 was taken from the cash drawer and silks, overalls, shoes, etc., to the value of $350 were carried away. The thieves traveled in a motor car.

3 Firemen Overcome As Smoke Masks Fail

Failure of smoke masks caused three firemen to be overcome by smoke in a fire which started from rubbish in the basement of the A. Wallace home, 3542 North Twenty-eighth avenue, shortly before noon yesterday.

The firemen, all colored, are William Jackson, captain, 3532 North Twenty-ninth; A. T. Turner, junior captain, 3017 Manderson; and Melvin Freeman, 913 North Twenty-third. They were attended by police surgeons and later taken to their homes.

Last Rites Today For Auto Victim

Funeral services for J. E. George to be held at 2:30 This Afternoon.

The bodies of John Edward George, secretary and treasurer of the George & Co. real estate firm, and Ray M. Welch, president of the Omaha Co-operative company, who met their deaths shortly before noon Sunday near Fairmount, Neb., as the result of an automobile accident, were returned to Omaha Sunday by Charles S. George.

Funeral services for Mr. George will be conducted at his residence, 212 North Forty-fifth street, this afternoon at 2:30. The body of Welch will be sent today to Alta Loma, a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal., where Mr. Welch had made his home the last few years.

Mr. George was fatally injured and Mr. Welch killed instantly when the car in which they were riding capsized. Mr. George, who was driving, turned out to avoid crashing into two cars parked along the road. In driving back into the road it is thought he turned too sharply and the car toppled over.

Cases on Federal Docket Set for Trial in 2 Weeks

George Schultz pleaded guilty to illegal possession of liquor in federal court yesterday, and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Woodrough. The Klein also pleaded guilty but the judge withheld penalty until he learned whether Klein had paid his fine on a state charge.

Cases called on the docket today were set for trial, civil cases first and criminal ones later. Trials begin when Judge Woodrough returns from Lincoln, in about two weeks.
