Washington, Sept. 27 .- The senate was agog today over reports, ap-parently well founded, that ex-Presper cent Americanism, but they also possess a wholesome respect for the American dollar and its exchange value. So they take out $3.

That leaves for William Joseph That leaves for Willi ident Woodrow Wilson, from the scpeace with Germany, Austria and Hungary now awaiting ratification, Mr. Wilson, it is understood, has een quietly inviting some of his old spokesmen among the democratic clared the defense would move to senators to his home and has been reminding them of the doctrines which dominated his position regardng the league of nations and the Versailles treaty. He takes the view that the new treaties negotiated by the Harding administration, in effect, do constitute " a separate peace" with Germany and a desertion on the part of America from the allied powers. News of Mr. Wilson's "return from Elba" produced powerful results among the democrats. The indifference with which they have regarded the Harding treaties changed overnight to an attitude of intense hostility on the part of many of them. John Sharp Williams, follow-er of Woodrow Wilson through thick and thin, led the procession of 'flipfloppers" and made a vigorous speech calculated to start an antitreaty band wagon on the democratic side. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, secretary of the treasury under Mr. Wilson, also has declared against the treaty.
