

S. No Longer Dependent Upon Food Imports

Rice and Other Commodities Imported 20 Years Ago Now Exported in Large Quantities.

With three or four hundred of rice skillfully converted in the plain people of the far east and of India are able to feed themselves sufficient food to enable them to be occupied every day in hard work.

Twenty years ago the wet lands along the southern coast produced not more than 10,000,000 bushels of rice.

It is now the fact that within 20 years we have become substantially independent of the world for rice, raisins, sulphur.

South Side Retail Prices of Meat Exorbitant, Says E. C. Brown

National Live Stock Exchange Head Cites Instances Showing Extortion By Retailers.

In a statement given out yesterday Everett C. Brown, president of the National Live Stock exchange, says the demand for meat is being strangled by the retailing exorbitant prices charged by the retailer.

The following incidents are cited by Mr. Brown: A man who works for a packer bought two pounds of round steak from a butcher, had it ground and was charged 50 cents a pound.

Two butcher shops across the street from each other were selling smoked meats from the same packer at a difference of 6 cents a pound.

Fannie Winters, negro, 4719 South Twenty-seventh street, was sentenced to 90 days in jail in South Side police court yesterday for bootlegging.

Collins was given a 30-day sentence for assault and battery. Fannie told the judge he struck her, and she told the judge he hit her.
