Bee at World Series World's series! The Omaha Bee sports department will be represented at the Polo grounds by several of the country's best base ball writers. Charles A. Lovett, veteran member of the Base Ball Writers' Association of America will write the main story of each game.

John B Foster, former secretary of the New York Giants and editor of Spalding's base ball an-nuals, will supply a technical story each day. Don't miss these.

Marshall A. Hunt and Harry Newman, veteran scribes, will write the "color" stuff and sidelights. So, with all these star scribes on the job, fans who read The Bee sport pages will be sure to get the real done on each game. Don't miss any of these ar-
