Be Sure to Profit By This Extraordinary Sale of Fall Dresses

Can You Believe It's a Blouse?

The New Tunic Blouse is almost a dress—but, may be bought at the price of a blouse. French designers offered them, American designers took them up, and now Tunic Blouses are within the reach of every woman.

The model pictured above is of Canton Crepe and lovely Spanish Lace at $27.50

For Saturday we are featuring one created of Georgette, which becomes a dress with the addition of a simple slip. They are heavily beaded or fringe trimmed, in Black, Black and White combinations, Brown, and Brown and Tan combinations.

Girls' New Winter Coats

Values Accomplished Through One of Our New Purchases

$15.00 to $25.00

So remarkable are these values that we urge mothers to come in to see these splendid little coats, even if they do not intend to buy, for they bring the sturdy fabric, finely tailored coat of practical wear within the reach of all.

The coats, of strictly all-wool pebble chevots, heathers, plaids and velours, have been perfectly tailored and are lined with attractive but sturdy twill, in sateen, satin and Venetian cloth.

They are all straight belted models, some with raglan sleeves and patch pockets, some with fur collars of natural opossum, slynx and beaverette.

Sizes 6 to 16.

The Furcron Twins will sell and display these coats on Saturday. They have cunning souvenir booklets for each little girl.
