

Europe Demands Passports From Germans, Yanks

Frenchmen, Englishmen and Spaniards, Etc., Travel Freely—Action in Retaliation for U. S. $10 Fee.

Paris, Oct. 7.—Practically alone among travelers the American in Europe is still forced to cling to his passport, resulting in delays to business men as a result of which nations often beat them in reaching markets.

Frenchmen, Englishmen, Spaniards, Portuguese, Swiss and Belgians can now travel about Europe almost as freely as before the war owing to friendly conventions between their respective governments.

Italy within a month will have open borders.

Fee Remains. Then the United States limited the number of incoming immigrants. That proved efficacious. Hundreds of thousands would-be immigrants are now storming the United States consular offices in Europe in vain. But—overlooked in the rush, maybe—the $10 fee remains. Not only that, but the methods of consular officials, the reels and reels of red tape unbound in a bureau which never existed before the war, the retaliatory methods adopted by other European nations are wearing the patience of American travelers in Europe to the proverbial thread.

A Frenchman can go from Paris to Constantinople for his railway fare and $1.25 in visas. An Englishman has to pay nearly $2. An American in London bound for Constantinople finds he must secure no less than 11 visas costing $110, or $35 more than the fare on the train-de-luxe.

Vocational Agriculture Is Popular in Fairbury

Fairbury, Neb., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Vocational agriculture in the Fairbury schools is now in its third year and is proving to be one of the most popular courses that the school is offering. The Fairbury schools are crowded so that it is necessary for the shop work in vocational agriculture to be carried on in a small frame building on the campus. There are 35 boys in the department this year.

Passport Obligatory. Only the German and the American will then have to have passports and visas to travel in Europe.

Not only is the passport obligatory to the Americans—because America makes it obligatory to the foreigner—but its costs him more in visas than frequently all his train and boat fares cost him.

To restrain the immigrant flood the United States put its visa fee at the unheard of price of $10 two years ago, charging Americans the same so as not to be open to a charge of discrimination.

The $10 did not restrain the immigrants. They only had to borrow that much more or work a few weeks longer, or wait until Cousin Pietro or Brother Stanislasavich in America sent it to them.

Fee Remains. Then the United States limited the number of incoming immigrants. That proved efficacious. Hundreds of thousands would-be immigrants are now storming the United States
