

My Marriage Problems

Adèle Garrison's New Phase of "REVELATIONS OF A WIFE"

The Plan Dicky Made to Entertain Bess Dean.

Within 24 hours of her arrival Bess Dean had fitted herself deftly, smoothly, into the scheme of our mountain family life, and had gained apparent cordiality and liking from each member.

"That jovial giant, 'Pa' Cosgrove—as I had learned he is called by half the valley—was frankly delighted with her good nature, her buoyant spirits, her raillery and her enthusiasm, apparently genuine, over his beloved mountains. The twins, Ned and Fred—now grown to stalwart manhood, with the inches, though not the girls, of their father—shared his admiration of the girl, who, though she must have taught their contemporaries in age but a few years ago, treated them with exactly the same half-lunatic, half-differential air she did the elder Cosgrove.

Marion, in the throes of a little girl's uncomfortable idolizing a big one, followed Bess Dean around like an adoring shadow, with Junior always tagging at her heels, and neither Lillian nor I, smiling to ourselves at the boredom Miss Dean must be suffering, could detect any sign of annoyance on her part. I even saw the grave face of Robert Savarin light up in amusement at some of the girl's sallies, while Dicky—though making a virtue of providing entertainment for my friend—so far as I could observe, did not appear to be especially bored by his efforts.

Contrary to her usual custom, when men are on her social horizon, Bess Dean took particular pains to be cordial and attentive to the women of our family. Mrs. Cosgrove, Lillian and I—she was careful to neglect none of us, but I think that with the clarity of feminine vision toward members of our own sex, not one of us failed to understand her real feeling of annoyed boredom at having to waste her time upon us.

Like most strangers to mountain life, Bess Dean was anxious to do everything she had read about people doing when they sojourned among the eternal hills. And after the first five days, Dicky, I fancy, found himself at his wife's ends to provide something novel for her approval.

"Well, what's the program today, people?" This was her invariable greeting at the breakfast table.

When she uttered it upon the sixth day following her arrival, I saw Dicky's eyebrows knit involuntarily, and, with secret amusement, I realized that he was beginning to take a trip like that today. And when he answered contained no hint of his real feeling. Instead, it was

Proper Attention Saves Your Stockings

The way you treat silk stockings has a lot more to do with the way they wear than has their original price—usually. Sometimes, of course, they are just such a poor quality that they aren't worth taking care of. But usually care tells more with silk stockings than it does with almost anything else.

To begin with, never let silk stockings lie soiled for a week. They rot, once the moisture from the foot

Let No Corn Spoil an Hour

Any Corn Can Be Stopped Now, Any Moment, by a Touch

SCIENCE has solved the corn problem. One can now stop a corn ache instantly, and shortly remove the whole corn.

The method is gentle, scientific, sure. A famous chemist invented it. A surgical dressing house of world-wide fame produces it.

It is Blue-jay—the liquid or the plaster. A touch applies it. The pain stops at once. Soon the whole corn, however ancient, loosens and comes out. It makes harsh treatments unnecessary. It makes every corn ache a folly.

Your druggist has Blue-jay. Let it end your corn—tonight.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

Lecture Series at the Y. W. C. A. Opens

Miss Jessie M. Towne will give the following course on "Modern Poetry" at the Y. W. C. A. on Monday evenings, from 7 to 8 o'clock: Alfred Noyes, John Masfield, "Lyrics"; John Masfield, "The Dauber"; other modern English poets; American poets who follow the traditions; American poets, new verse. The first lecture will be given Monday evening, October 10.

Prof. Walter Halsey of the Omaha university will give a course on "Psychology" on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 8, beginning October 12.

Prof. Edwin Pals will have a class in public speaking on Fridays from 5:15 to 6:15, starting October 14.

Maurice Block, director of the Omaha Society of Fine Arts, will give six lectures on the history of art on Wednesday evenings from 7 to 8, beginning October 12.

E. Lewis Holland's course on advertising will open on Tuesday, October 11, at 7 o'clock.

Hugh Lawson is giving a course on interior decorating. The first lesson will be given on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, and will cover the fundamentals of decorating.

Registrations for these classes may be made at the Y. W. C. A.

Callot uses the revived circular cut in a cape which appears only in the back of costume. With it a straight skirt is worn.

Poor Consolation. Nellie, crying, "Oh, Willie, my doll fell in the fire and got burned up! The prettiest one I had, too!" Willie, fresh from school: "Don't cry, Nellie. Philosophy says that matter can't be destroyed. Your doll is here yet, only it's not in the same form."

Net Continuous. Passenger—Say, does this car always make this noise? Driver—No, only when it's running—Tennessee Magwump.

Hams and Bacon

"The Taste Tells"

Insist on Puritan Ham and Bacon

The name "Puritan" is branded on each ham and slab of bacon. It is an assurance of highest possible quality and nutrition. Extreme care is taken in selecting meats for the Puritan cure. Parboiling of ham unnecessary. Both are "just right."

Be particular. Insist on Puritan brands. We suggest you order a whole ham or slab of bacon at a time. Really, you'll be surprised at the saving you make against the "choice cut" way of buying. Try this method.

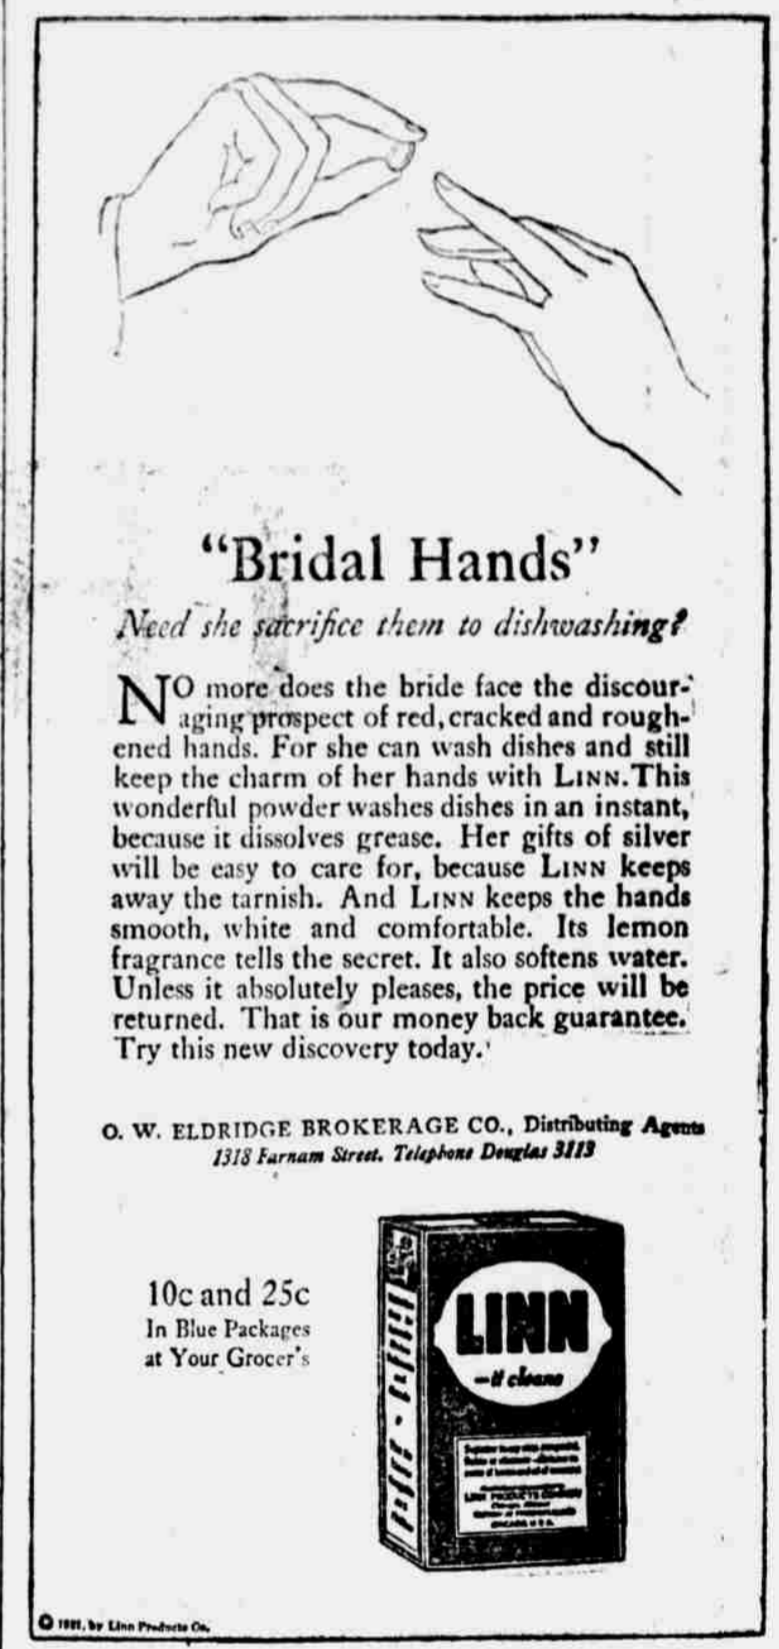

THE CUDAHY PACKING COMPANY

"Bridal Hands"

Need she sacrifice them to dishwashing?

NO more does the bride face the discouraging prospect of red, cracked and roughened hands. For she can wash dishes and still keep the charm of her hands with LINN. This wonderful powder washes dishes in an instant, because it dissolves grease. Her gifts of silver will be easy to care for, because LINN keeps away the tarnish. And LINN keeps the hands smooth, white and comfortable. Its lemon fragrance tells the secret. It also softens water. Unless it absolutely pleases, the price will be returned. That is our money back guarantee. Try this new discovery today!
