

Reduced Death Rate Is Cited For Population

Professor Declares Decrease in Death Rate Rather than Increased Birth Rate Saves Country.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 7.—Population in the United States is increasing rapidly, due to reduction in the death rate rather than to an increase in birth rates, E. A. Ross, professor of sociology at the University of Wisconsin, said, speaking last night before the Students' Social Science club.

Prof. Ross advocated birth control, saying that "Twenty years ago, when I coined that grossly misused phrase, 'race suicide,' I believed in large families; today, with changed conditions and years of deeper study of the subject, I have changed my mind."

First Killing Frost Booked for Omaha

First killing frost of the season was scheduled for last night, according to Weather Forecaster M. V. Robins. Saturday, he said, would be fair and warmer.

Several points in Nebraska reported below freezing temperatures Thursday night, although the lowest in Omaha was 40 degrees. The local weather bureau yesterday began issuance of shippers' bulletins to protect perishable products against the weather. Warning for the next 24 hours is to protect shipments in the north and west for 25 degrees and in the east and south against freezing temperatures.

Holdup Men Fire Pistols At Milders and Escape

When J. Milder, 2808 Capitol avenue, reached for his pocketbook when two masked men held him up as he was backing his car into the garage at the rear of his home Thursday night, they fired at him and fled, he reported to police. Apparently they thought he was reaching for a gun. Mrs. Milder, who was with him, threw several pieces of jewelry to the floor of the car. Abe Milder, a son, who was home, pursued the highwaymen, firing several shots at them, but they escaped.

Service Schools To Be Opened For Army Officers

Limited Number of Reserves in Infantry and Air Division to Be Selected For Course.

Opportunity is being offered by the War department for certain reserve officers in the Seventh corps area to attend service schools. Two infantry reserve officers, with grade not higher than that of major, will be sent to Camp Benning, Ga.; one captain and one lieutenant of the air service will be sent to the mechanics school, Chanute field, Rantoul, Ill., and one captain and two lieutenants of the air service to the communications school, Post field, Fort Sill, Okl.

The course at the infantry school will begin November 1, 1921, and will continue until January 31, 1922. The course at the air service schools will cover a period of three months. Infantry and air service reserve officers residing in the 89th division area (South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas), who desire to attend these schools, should make application at once to the chief of staff, 89th division, Army building, Omaha, giving their war record. Air service officers should designate which school they desire to attend.

Recommendations for officers to attend these schools will be made to corps headquarters, October 12. It is therefore necessary that applications be submitted at once.

Randolph Boy Scalped When Stepped on by Horse

Randolph, Ia., Oct. 7.—A peculiar accident happened at the Fred Barkus home, five miles northwest of Randolph, Ralph, the 5-year-old son of Frank Bennett, was playing with the Barkus boy and they started horseback after the cows. The Bennett boy was thrown from his horse and the horse ran over him, his hoof catching the lad's head in such a way as to tear off nearly the whole scalp.

Howard County Teachers Will Meet Next Week

St. Paul, Neb., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Howard county teachers' institute will be held here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Every teacher in the county will be required to attend, and it is expected at least 130 will enroll.

Assistant Superintendent of Air Mail Service Flies Here

Charles I. Stanton, assistant general superintendent of the air mail service at Washington, flew into Omaha at 5 Thursday night, en route to the west coast on an inspection trip. Stanton, a former army flyer, made the trip from the capital to Chicago by train, but finding an old type plane not in use at the Maywood hangar, felt the urge to fly.

The motor of his plane, one formerly used between New York and Washington, was changed here before Stanton should continue his westward flight.

Grain Dealers Declare Marketing Plan Failure

Chicago, Oct. 7.—The co-operative grain marketing plans put into effect last spring by the American Farm Bureau federation, according to the Grain Dealers' National association, have proved so impossible that the association no longer deems it necessary to maintain its special legislative committee in Chicago and will remove it to Toledo immediately, a statement from dealers' organization said. "The emergency which caused us to open offices in Chicago has passed," said the statement. "This emergency was to warn the farmers that the ambitious grain pooling scheme trumpeted to them last spring as a panacea must fall of its own economic defects. The emergency has been met effectively."
