

U.S. Government Affairs Halted For Knox Funeral

Nation's Leaders, Headed by President Harding, Attend Services at Episcopal Church.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Governmental affairs of the nation halted today while its leaders, headed by President Harding, attended funeral services for the late Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, former secretary of state and attorney general.

The services were held at 11 o'clock at St. Johns Episcopal church, which he attended, and were conducted by the Rt. Rev. Alfred Harding, bishop of Washington. At the church were many persons prominent in American public life. President and Mrs. Harding, Secretary Christian and the president's military aid, Colonel Sherrell, occupied a front pew before the black silk casket, which bore a large cluster of red roses. Behind the president were Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, Speaker Gillett and Mrs. Gillett, Mrs. Knox, the senator's children and other relatives.

Associates Present. Members of the supreme court, headed by Chief Justice Taft, occupied the next pews and behind them were members of the cabinet, including Secretaries Hughes, Mellon, Hoover and Weeks and Postmaster General Hays.

Almost half of Mr. Knox's associates of the senate were present. Democratic and republican members of the house and senate sat side by side in the small church, while large crowds waited outside.

The services were confined to the simple Episcopal ritual read by Bishop Harding. Before the altar were two immense floral pieces sent by the senate and house and another from the White House. The only music was a funeral dirge by the organ.

At the conclusion of the services here the body was taken aboard a special car for Philadelphia, thence to be taken by motor to Valley Forge, the country home of Senator Knox. Services will be held there at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow in the memorial chapel, where interment will take place.

Senator Knox's seat in the senate was draped in black and will remain so for 30 days.

Body of Senator Knox Taken to Valley Forge

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—The body of Senator Philander C. Knox arrived here late today. It was accompanied by his widow and other members of the family.

The coffin, of plain black design, with silver side bars, was ornamented with a single wreath of roses, the tribute of the president and Mrs. Harding. Several hundred persons were at the station.

The body was taken by motor here to Valley Forge, the country home of Senator Knox, where funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Auto Day Celebration Plan of Nebraska City

Nebraska City, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special)—The Nebraska City Chamber of Commerce has adopted plans for the celebration of Ford Day here on October 26. Day after tomorrow the local band, together with the local band, will furnish the music. There will be plenty of attractions for the entertainment of a large crowd and prizes will be awarded for various floats and cars taking part in a gigantic parade. All attractions will be free.

AT THE THEATERS

Tom Howard, with Harry Haines "Knick Knacks" will be the attraction at the Gayety, week starting today. It will serve to introduce Tom Howard, who makes his first appearance over this circuit, and whose originality has made him one of the leading comedians in his chosen sphere. His style of humor is one that appeals to the old idea of slapstick is no longer required to "make 'em laugh," and with this in view Mr. Howard has written a vehicle that is a genuine chain of laughter from beginning to end. Rare and funny situations and humorous sidelights are introduced, which are sure to please in good measure. Sunday's matinee starts at 2 o'clock.

Theater-goers will be offered the very latest thing in modern minstrelsy when Oscar F. Hodges will present the Neil O'Brien Super-Minstra at the Strand theater for two days starting with matinee today. This organization comprises the highest class actors, comedians, singers, dancers, specialty performers and comedians in a three part program arranged and personally directed by Mr. Neil O'Brien, who occupies the eminent position of being the representative producer of minstrelsy of the present day.

Speaking of screen acting, Taylor Holmes, who opens in a three-day engagement at the Strand next Monday, in "Smooth as Silk," says "an effort to portray acting thoroughly in this picture has only come in the last few years. Formerly an actor walked through the scenes with the aid of the camera. Now he is expected to include both the general trend of the action. You can't go on and look blank any more. You have to feel what you portray, and this kind of art you learn behind the footlights and not in front of the camera."

Leonard Godowsky, who will be heard in concert at the Strand theater on Thursday evening, October 20, left his native town of Wilna, Poland, at the age of 14, in 1878, for America where he toured in concert with the sisters Clara and Emma. He returned to Europe to fulfill his greatest ambition, that of becoming a student under Liszt at Weimar.

Concluding performances are to be given today at the Empress show that has been particularly favored. It is the bill headed by the supreme stars favorite, "The Musical Revue," and by Osa Munson in "A Manly Revue." Louis Dresser is to be the stellar feature of the show opening with the Sunday matinee. She and Jack Gardner are to present a group of distinctive song numbers. In musical comedy, as in vaudeville, Mrs. Dresser is established as a supreme stage favorite. Mr. Gardner has appeared here in "The Chocolate Soldiers" and in "Madam Sherry." As for Miss Dresser, her last musical comedy success was in "Rock-a-Bay-Baby," a musical version of the farce, "Baby Mine." Formerly she played the leading feminine role in the comedy, "Potash and Perimeter."

All kiddies attending the Empress theater today, will witness one of the best animal acts presented this season, in which fifty dog actors take part. For the groupings a splendid bit of entertainment is provided by the two Kachinas in their offering, "Dainty Different Dances." Mr. Kachina is the possessor of a remarkable double voice, his soprano register having a marvelous flexibility. Miss Kachina plays the violin.

New St. Paul High School

St. Paul, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special).—The new St. Paul High school building was dedicated before a crowd of over 700 residents of Howard county. The program consisted of open house all day while school was in session, with music and speeches in the evening. Among the speakers were T. T. Bell, who acted as chairman; State Superintendent John M. Matzen and George E. Martin, president of the Nebraska State Teachers college of Kearney. Refreshments were served all day and evening by the domestic science class of the school. The building is pronounced by many educators to be one of the very finest high schools of the state. It is situated in a beautiful park of eight acres which is cut into the side of the town. The land was donated by the late Nicholas J. Poyser, founder of the town, and for 50 years a member of the local school board.

Brown New Head Of Retailers' Body

Annual Meeting Marked by Optimism Over Business Outlook.

The annual meeting of the Associated Retailers of Omaha held at the Brandeis restaurant Thursday following a dinner, was marked with optimism and enthusiasm over business conditions and the outlook for the future. C. B. Brown, Omaha jeweler, succeeded W. S. Stryker as president. Stryker has been the president for the last two years. Mr. Stryker was elected treasurer, George Brandeis vice president and J. W. Metcalfe re-elected secretary. On a motion, the Associated Retailers unanimously endorsed and pledged themselves to back up the "Omaha-made goods" campaign. The association agreed that retail selling by any manufacturer, jobber or wholesaler, was detrimental to the business interests of the city and prepared a resolution to that effect.

Nebraska City Police Poor Liquor Prospects

Nebraska City, Neb., Oct. 14.—(Special)—Italo Sabines, Italian bootlegger, was arrested and fined $100 after trying to sell a policeman his wares. He had a gallon and a half of liquor in his room. The Italian says his home is in Omaha and liquor there is plentiful, but owing to the unemployment situation it is hard to dispose of. He sought the greener fields and came to this city.
