Fire of Gipsy's Criticism Drawn By Intellectuals

Educated Persons Urged to Look Into Own Hearts for Right to Call Selves

Christians.

The intellectuals drew the fire of Gipsy Smith's criticism at the Mon right meeting at the Auditor-. He said "you intellectual peo-who are able to read books intelligently and come to a wise conclusion, look into your hearts— honestly—and see whether you have a right to call yourselves Christians. See whether your life warrants your taking that holy name upon your-

"What I am about to say will not be pleasant to you, but every word comes from a heart filled with the desire to be of service to you," and then he scored the men and women who desecrate the Sabbath,

Children Not Considered.

"Your boys and girls hold the Sabbath lightly. Christ said, 'suffer little children to come unto me, but it is different in Omaha, Oma-ha ministers tell me that it is almost impossible to get intelligent men and women to take charge of boys and grls' Sunday school classes, that the burden falls on the shoulders of a faithful few.

"Many children have never heard their parents pray. There is some-thing the matter with your religion when children can't talk about it to their parents and when husbands and wives can't pray together and before the children.

"America is destined to become will not fulfill this destiny unless it gets a tighter grip on the Lord's day. If the Sunday records of many of you church members were known would read something like this 'He went to church Sunday morning and played golf in the after audience and smiles came upon many words I feel sorry for you. I am told of two incidents which will bear program of sports, athletics, speak-not after your giggles." The smiling repeating. He told them to drive ing and music, under auspices of the in religious life is God. You can crowd the churches with sorry you lost your arm. theatricals, entertainments, minstrel shows, dramatics and musicals, but try to crowd them with prayer meet-

Titter Gets Rebuke

"Am I right?" he appealed to the ministers. There was a unanimous reply of "Yes."

Need Prayer in Homes.

Then the evangelist pleaded for sentimental, sickly, weak Christian life you lead. It means something

"Review your life and ask yourself of water had been taken. Each fellow had saved its contents for the better look at your life now before it's too late. You should thank God next fellow, thinking that he needed He sent somebody to your city to make you think of eternal things. If you put God in your life you have nothing to be ashamed of."

The preacher expressed sorrow that there were no more men in the world of Moody's caliber to preach the soldiers with him wherever he the gospel as it should be and to goes. convert sinners. "O, that we had more great evangelists," he cried.

"In closing he said, "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness," and then he asked all who intended to do better to arise. The audience arose. "Close who have the avangelist company."

arise. The audience arose. "Close your eyes," the evangelist commanded and the choir sang softly, "Where He Leads I Will Follow."

He then asked all who had not attended any previous meetings to hold up their hands. Hundreds of hands went up.

1,000 Sign Pledge.

The number of pledge cards turned in at the platform last night was estimated at 1,000 by Rev. Titus was estimated at 1,000 by Rev. Titus Lowe, about a third of the entire audience. Only the floor space was filled. There were great vacant places in the galleries. "But Monday is always a bad night," Mr. Smith said optimistically.

While the great choir sang, all who cared to shake hands with Gipsy Smith were invited to do so. There was a stream of men and women, lead by an elderly man, from all aisles. Several hundreds shook the evangelist's hand.

shook the evangelist's hand.

The great choir was at its best last night. There are still some vacancies which the choir leader, William Mc-Ewan, would like to have filled. The music is one of the inspiring features of the meetings.

Superior Power Company

To Serve Guide Rock Stores Superior, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)

—A contract has been closed between the town of Guide Rock and the Southern Nebraska Power com-pany of Superior by which the power company is to furnish electrical serv-ice to Guide Rock. Line work is being started and plans are made to carry the work through very rapidly.

Burglars Enter Store for

Second Time in Two Weeks Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)
-For the second time within two weeks the Farmers Mercantile store at Barneston, Neb., 20 miles south of here rear the state line, was en-tered last night by robbers who se-cured silks, shoes and clothing valued at $300 and escaped in a motor car. Officers have secured no clue,

Davenport Couple Married

By Minister at Beatrice Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)
—William F. Johnson, jr., and Miss
Grace M. Bower, both of Davenport,
Neb., were married at Trinity Lutheran parsonage by Rev. G. B. Weaver. They will make their home at Davenport, where the groom is engaged in business.

Service Certificates for Heroes

Tales of France During War Told By Gipsy Smith

the greatest nation in the world. It Evangelist Drives Home Points of Sermons With Stories of Unselfish Service.

Incidents which happened during the three and a halt years Gipsy Here there was slight titter in the Smith spent in the front line trenches are bound to crop out dur-"If you can smile at such sacred ing his sermons. Monday night he He continued: "And she went to communion on Sunday morning and in the afternoon went automobile riding or entertained company."

The summing repeating. He told them to drive home the point he was putting across, unselfish service to others. "Sergeant Nolan, an Alabama boy, was one of my heat friends."

"Your church activities count for During the fight at Chateau Thierry nothing unless they have God in his right forearm was blown away, them. The most stupendous thing "After he returned from the hospitai, I said to him, 'Sonny, I'm very snapped into attention. stood straight as a ramrod, and saluting me with his left hand said, 'Sir, I didn't lose it. I gave it will ingly for my country." Another incident was this. "One day I found nine boys in a shell hole where they had crawled more prayer in the home and churches, "Getting right with God means following Jesus, and following Jesus means praying," he said.

Gave It Willingly.

His text was taken from that incident in which Christ selected several of his disciples.

"Follow Me," does not mean the putting the canteen to their line. of his disciples.

"'Follow Me,' does not mean the putting the canteen to their lips.

Handed Back Full.

it more than himself. "One of the greatest joys of my life is, when a boy tells me he was in France, to be able to say, 'so was

There is to be a special patriotic service, November 4, at which all

Well, boys, this is the stack of war service certificates waiting for you in the American Legion office. Live Stock Good Loan court house. Come and get 'em. Twelve thousand of these service certificates, awarded to former soldiers, sailors and marines of Douglas county by act of the Nebraska legislature, are awaiting distribution at the American Legion office in the

The name of each ex-service man is engraved upon his certificate. Men must call at the office if they wish to get their certificates.

Gala Day, October 27,

Minden, Neb., Oct. 18 .- (Special.) -Thursday, October 27, will be a gala day in Minden, with a complete Community Commerce club. A special program will be held for the old settlers of the county. Col. Tom Majors of Peru and Hon. W. E. Sheldon of the State Historical so-ciety at Lincoln probably will be the speakers.

The Minden Woman's club will have a special meeting for the women of the county, in the new rest com in the court house. A horseshoe tournament will be held, with cups for first and second places in both singles and doubles. The plans include the organization of a tennis club for the county, and a tennis tournament to be held also.

Another special feature of the day will be what is being held in some other towns under the name of Ford day, with prizes for a slow Ford race, best decorated Ford, noisiest Ford, worst looking Ford and many other novel Ford stores and business houses will be open all day, with special displays and special offerings for the day,

incoln Phone Company

Defendant in $35,000 Suit Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18 .- (Special.) The personal damage suit of William Davis, colored, against the Lin-coln Telephone & Telegraph company, is being tried in the dis-trict court. Davis is suing the company for $35,000 for alleged injuries received by falling from a faulty ladder while engaged in cleaning the rooms in the bock owned by the said

Pioneer Dies

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)

—E. E. Goehring, 65 years old, pioneer of Gage county, died at his Sheriff Smith. Tewksbury has been home six miles southwest of the city, operating an auto bus line between

Collateral, Declares Reserve Board Head

chairman of the federal reserve for questioning by the police.
board, in a letter to Congressman Miss Sutorius, who is about 20. board, in a letter to Congressman Jefferis, clears up what has been a much-mooted question in the minds Scheduled for Minden | ka as to how far the power of the second extends over member banks as to loan policies. | Speaking of this phase of the sub-

ct. Governor Harding says: "You ask if the board cannot di-rect member banks to accept liens on hogs as collateral. Neither the federal reserve board nor the fedfederal reserve board nor the fed-eral reserve bank has any jurisdic-tion whatever over the loan policies of the member banks. We cannot a charge of killing his wife, were compel any member bank to make a loan which it does not wish to make nor, indeed, can we restrain a member bank from making a loan which it does not wish to make even if it is not authorized by law. Such cases are dealt with after the fact by comptroller of the currency if the member bank is a national bank. by the state superintendent if a state bank. "It seems to me, however, that at present prices farm products properly warehoused and insured and live stock are especially good collateral. While there is always a risk in making loans at the top of the market, certainly the risk is very slight at the present level of prices.'

House Committee Favors

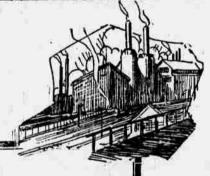

Board on Foreign Debt Washington, Oct. 18 .- Favorable reports authorizing the creation of a commission to arrange for funding and refunding of the foreign deb was ordered today by the house ways and means committee. The measure is a substitute for the administration bill which would have given the secretary of treasury blanket authority over foreign debt negotiations,

Alleged Child Deserter

Is Returned for Trial Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)
—George Tewksbury, who was arrested here last week charged with failing to pay for the support of his minor child at Madison, Neb.,

H. S. Clarke, Jr.

President of the Corn Exchange National Bank, known to hundreds of Omahans as a booster for every enterprise that has for its purpose the building of a bigger, better Omaha. Mr. Clarke would appre-ciate an opportunity of making YOUR requaintance,

The POWER Behind the Bank

Omaha possesses many fine institutions notable not only for the character and volume of their business, but for their foresightedness in keeping abreast of the times. It is from these enterprising industries that the directors of the Corn Exchange National Bank have been drawn.

These men, recognized as leaders in their respective vocations, form a banking directorate with a world of knowledge on financial and business affairs, both national and local. Omaha is peopled with thinking men and women quick to realize the importance of the service which these men are able to offer.

> We want YOU to use this service, to take advantage of the benefits that these men have made possible. This institution can help YOU to get ahead—and stay ahead. Open YOUR account here without delay.

Bank With an Interest in YOU.

Motorist Runs Into His Mother,

Dying in Road Had Been Hit by Speedster-Negroes Attempt to Lynch Alleged Wife Slaver-Two Die of Ptomaine.

ry Bishop brought his motor car to an abrupt stop on Lincoln avenue last night just in time to avoid runcar's headlights revealed in the mid-dle of the road. Bishop lifted the battered body and recognized his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Bishop. She was unconscious.

Mrs. Bishop had gone from her home, where her son lived, to see her daughter, Mrs. Zoll, on Lincoln avenue and had started on foot to

She was unconscious when her son found her and she died a few minutes after she was carried to the Huntington hospital.

Evidently she had been struck by a speeding motor car, which had not

Girl Found Unconscious.

Boston, Oct. 18.—The police are investigating the finding of Miss Ethel Sutorius, of Fort Washington avenue, New York City, a voice culture student, scantily clad and in an unconscious condition in an alley off Newbury street, Back Bay, early today. Prof. David Lythgoe, the cirl's yearly instructor and Ray.

was removed to the city hospital, where it was found that she was day. suffering from a fracture of the of a number of people in Nebras- spine. The police have been unable to determine whether she jumped or fell from the window of her

> Negroes Attempt Lynching. Texarkana, Tex., Oct. 18 .- Two unsuccessful attempts to take Edley Hopkins, negro, from deputy

At the conclusion of the hearing the mob followed the officers with their prisoner until within two miles of Boston where they pushed the of Boston where they rushed the guards and seized Hopkins. Oficers however quickly drew their guns and drove off the attackers, soon after preventing another at-tempt in the same manner. The negro was placed in the Boston jail, later being brought here for safe keeping.

Girl and Mother Shot. Coffeyville, Kan., Oct. 18 .- Mrs.

Huntington, L. 1., Oct. 18.—Har- conscious with her skull crushed and powder burns on her face, and her 10-year-old daughter, Gladys May Trowbridge, of Miami, Okla., was found dead with two bullet holes in ning over the body of a woman the ber body by motorists a mile west

Two Die of Ptomaine.

New York, Oct. 18.-Mrs. Nellie Parker, a typist for the Anglo-Mexican Petroleum company, 65 Broadway and Morris Madden, waiter in the Postal lunch, 54 Liberty street, died in a hospital last night of ptomaine poisoning. Alex-ander Coste, 23, a bank clerk, of 3024 East Sixth street, was critically ill in the same hospital. Coste, who walked into the hospital this afternoon told detectives who investigated the case that he had breakfast yesterday at the Postal lunch, cating oat meal, ham, apple sauce, bread and butter and

Aged Woman Killed. New York, Oct. 18 .- A woman, 50 years old, was killed yesterday when trying to save her 4-year-old granddaughter from the wheels of an Washington, Oct. 18—(Special Telegram.) — Governor Harding. Govern ing in the city is so great nowadays that there were more than 500 cases on the calendar of the court yester-

> Mrs. Mary Vyskogel was the 80year-old woman who lost her life in trying to save Mildred Holub, 4. them, the old woman seized the child and pulled her back out of danger, but she was struck and killed.

> > Girl With Uncle Slain

Chattanooga, Tenu., Oc., 18 .- The made last night by a mob said to to ear. Mrs. Peterson had left the fines,

Funeral Is Held For Minden Yank

American Legion in Charge Of Service for

Minden, Neb., Oct. 18 .- (Special.) -Funeral services were held Tues-day for Private Segfred Oscar John-son, killed in France, whose body arrived here Friday evening, escorted by T. Ridley of Fort Des Moines. Johnson was born in Kearney coun-ty, October 16, 1892. When 20 years old he moved on to a farm southwest of Minden where he lived until he

He enlisted in September, 1917, and went into training at Camp Funston. In March, 1918, he was transferred to the regulars, leaving Camp Funston for Newport News, A month later he sailed for France, arriving at Brest, April 15,

Early in June his division became a part of the fighting troops, Segfred being with the fourth infantry, company F, third division. He fought at Chateau Thierry and in the Argonne-Meuse drive, the latter battle being the place where he received wounds that caused his death on October 14, 1918.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. G. Johnson; four sisters, Mrs. Hannah Lynn of Kearney county, Mrsr. Matilda Johnson of Pixley, Cal.; Mrs. Amelia Nelson of Kearney county and Miss Bessie Johnson of Lincoln; also two brothers, William and Alvin, both of Kearney county.

The funeral services were held under the auspices of the local chapter of the American Legion, in charge of Commander Alfred I. Petersen. Dr. I. C. Rankin of the local United Presbyterian church delivered the sermon. The legion As a motor truck rushed down on escorted the body to .the Minden

Fined for Drunkenness

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.)
-Frank McCabe, Glen Wells and Jumb" Blowere were lodged in jail on the charge of being intoxicated They were brought before Judge Ellis and pleaded guilty. Each was fined $10 and costs and paid their

Old Fort Kearney to Be Marked by Shaft

Kearney, Neb., Oct. 18.—(Special.) boards of supervisors have each set aside $500 to be used for purpose of purchasing a suitable memorial and marker to be erected on the site of old Fort Kearney, located three miles south and six miles east of this city. At present there is no marker identifying the historic spot, at one time the farthest west army post. An effort is being made to have a parking site created embodyhave a parking site created, embodying the fort and grounds, all local civic organizations being interested to this end. The financial help given by the two county boards is the frst step taken in this direction.

Three Notables TURKISH

The three greatest cigarette tobaccos, blending MILDNESS-MELLOWNESS-AROMA

one-eleven cigarettes 20for15°

A III FLETH AXE

Laugh With Your Friends!

Poor old Jiggs and his strong-willed better half, Maggie; the daily tilts of Andy and Minerva Gump; the delightful inconsistencies of Kernel Cootie; Little Jerry-on-the-Job, who gives many a laugh by his interpretations of business and its affairs; and Abie the Agent, with his everpresent economy ideas. They give us all

A Fresh Set of Chuckles

every day and Sunday. And, after all, what's life without some laughter? Get The Omaha Bee and enjoy the humor of America's cleverest cartoonists

Sunday and Every Week Day

THE OMAHA BEE

