

Injunction on Iowa Rail Tax Upheld by Court

Seven of Nine Railroads Win Points—Three Federal Judges Concur in Opinion.

Des Moines, Oct. 29.—Upholding every contention made by seven of the nine complaining railroad companies, a federal court bench of three judges handed down orders for temporary injunctions against the Iowa 1921 railroad assessments.

The court, in these seven cases, not only wiped out the entire increase in railroad taxes ordered by the executive council last July, but ordered a further reduction of 10 per cent in the assessed valuations that were in force the previous year. The injunction restrains county auditors from spreading railroad assessments in excess of a certain valuation per mile, different in the case of each road. Attorney General Gibson explained that the reduction in the assessed valuations, or more than $55,000,000 of the actual valuations as fixed by the executive council.

All three judges, Kimbrough Stone of Missouri, T. C. Mungler of Nebraska and M. J. Wade of Iowa, concurred in the order. The court held that "intentional, deliberate assessment of different classes of property at different percentages of actual value, result in an equality of treatment," which Iowa laws prohibit.

The roads' contention that land value assessments, compared to railroad assessments, are too low is entirely upheld.

The case probably will be heard on its merits at the December term of court.

The Wabash railroad and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway did not obtain the injunction.

Des Moines Citizens Lead in Percentage of Those Owning Homes

Washington, Oct. 29.—Des Moines, Ia., holds first place among cities of 100,000 people or over in the percentage of citizens owning their own homes, according to the census bureau. In Des Moines 51.1 per cent of the tenants have no fear of landlords through possession of title to the premises they occupy. Grand Rapids, Mich., is next with a percentage of 50.1.

In New York City only one home in eight is owned by the family living in it, the percentage ranging from 2 in Manhattan Borough to 42 in Richmond.

The census of homes showed 54.4 per cent of the residences in the United States are rented, 28.2 are owned free of any incumbrance, and 17.5 are owned but mortgaged. The national percentage of renters increased two-tenths of 1 per cent since 1910.

For the purpose of the census a "home" was taken to mean the abiding place of a single family.

Singer's Divorce Suit Withdrawn From Court

After part of the evidence in her divorce suit against her husband, Alvin F. Kellstrom, 3837 North Eighteenth street, had been presented in District Judge Wakeley's court room Friday, Mrs. Adeline Kellstrom, former soloist at North Presbyterian church, dismissed her suit. Her attorneys gave no reason for her act.

Mrs. Kellstrom filed the suit in September, alleging that her husband failed to fire the furnace, and that she was compelled to chop wood to keep the house warm enough for herself and her son, Carl Alvin, 2-1-2 years old.

Mr. Kellstrom, in his answer, asserted it was his wife's desire for a stage and operatic career which wrecked their marriage. Mr. Kellstrom is half owner of A. V. Harmou & Co., wholesale soda fountain supply house.

Charles Chaplin, motion picture actor, passed through Omaha at 9:10 a. m. yesterday.

Kings, queens, governors and generals may have arisen from their stateroom berths to observe the dawn in Omaha, but not Chaplin.

His only response to Omaha's greeting was a growl beneath the covers.

Passengers on the train brought news of the new shoes Chaplin is wearing. They were obtained in Paris and are made of patent leather, tan broadcloth and pearl buttons. In a word, it was explained, they are shoes such as only Chaplin would wear.

School Election Voters Restricted

Ruling Bars Childless Persons Without $200 Assessed Personal Property.

Lincoln, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Thousands of men and women in Nebraska will be barred in the future from voting at school elections, according to a ruling made today by Assistant Attorney General Charles S. Reed.

He gave his opinion that, under the law, persons without children cannot vote at school elections unless they have $200 or more of personal property which was assessed the last previous year before the election.

This applies to elections for school bonds or trustees.

The opinion was asked by John M. Matzen, state superintendent of public instruction.

Records at the county treasurer's office here indicate that 5,000 voters in Lincoln will be barred from voting at school elections under the ruling.

MOST CLOTHES WORN NOW ARE RECONSTRUCTED

Ever hear of "reconstructed" clothes? No? Well, perhaps not, but the fact is you see "reconstructed" clothes worn every day, but don't know they've been "reconstructed."

Dresher Brothers, Cleaners and Dyers at 2211-2217 Farnam street, are pioneers and chief exponents of "reconstructing" clothes. Dreshers take your old garments apart, clean them, recut the pieces to conform with present styles, sew the clothes together again, apply new collars, cuffs and linings, press the clothes nicely—and— presto—you've a new garment at a fraction of the cost of clothes bought out of the shops.

You'll need more or less "reconstructing" on the garments you are going to wear this winter and you would serve yourself best by having Dreshers do the work. Better phone Atlantic 0345 for a Dresher man, or South Market 0050 if you live in South Omaha, or leave work at Dresher The Tailors, 1515 Farnam St., or at one of the Dresher branches in Burgess-Nash or Brandeis stores.
