Last Day of November Chosen as Wedding Date.

Miss Regina Connell and Mal-colm Baldrige have set November 30 as their wedding date. The ceremony will take place in the Black-stone ball room, and will be fol-lowed by a reception. Archbishop J. J. Harty will officiate. Mrs. J. J. Harty will officiate. Mrs. Isaac Carpenter, jr., will be the matron of honor and Miss Margaret Dows of Cedar Rapids, Ia., a school friend of Miss Connell, will be bridesmaid. Billy Connell Creighton, a cousin of the bride, will act as ring bearer. The best man will be Robert Daley of Beverly, Mass., and the out-of-town ushers will be Charles P. Taft of New Haven and Lester Armour of Chicago. The Lester Armour of Chicago. The wedding will be of interest to many as both young people are well known in social circles. Miss Connell has been active in Red Cross Junior league work, and Mr. Baldrige, who recently completed a law course at the University of Nebraska, following his graduation from Yale, has been coaching the Creighton foot ball team, which is still undefeated this season.

Sisters of Mercy Bazar.

The alumnae of the Sisters of Mercy met Thursday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. James Reed, 624 South Thirty-first avenue, to make final arrangements for the bazar to be given at the Midley dancing academy November 10, 11 and 12 for the benefit of the new convent building fund.

CORN

"Crispy an' crunchy an' all-the-time-crackly! Gee, what would happen if Kellogg's got all eated

You certainly realize the difference in Corn Flakes when you eat Kellogg's

From the instant you open the generous sized package till they're tucked away in great and tiny "bread-baskets," Kellogg's Corn Flakes are a neverending delight! You can't even look at those big sunny-brown flakes, all joyously flavored, crisp and crunchy, without getting mighty hungry!

Such a spread for big and little boys and girls—the sweetheart of fine white corn kernels wondrously flavored and deliciously toasted in Kellogg's own way! You can't imagine anything more joyous to eat, or more ideal for fussy appetites!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are childhood's ideal food! Kiddies can eat as much as they can carry! Every mouthful makes for health, for sleepy-time-stomachs!

Don't just ask for "corn flakes"! You say KELLOGG'S and you'll get KELLÓGG'S!
