The Greatest Buying Opportunities of Many Years Await the Public NOW

Prices are down. Everyday necessities, the things that last from year to year, are at lower prices than in many seasons.
Take Linens, for instance—we have not had such complete assortments or such low prices since pre-war times—
Take Clothing: A man's suit costs probably 40% less than it did this time last year.
And Shoes! Study the prices of our today's shoes. Do you recall the prices of just one year ago?
The time has come for the housewife and for the mother to replenish her stocks—the many things which she has done without during war times, are now here and at reasonable prices.
